PEARL ROBERTSON (Mrs. R. R.), 800 Somerset Avenue, Fort Gary, Winnipeg 19, Manitoba, past president of Manitoba Provincial Chapter, has accepted an appointment to the P. E. O. Centennial Building Committee.

Could This Be Your Chapter?

THIS MONTH we bring to your attention the P. E. O. sister who has accepted in stride her husband's transfer to a distant section of the country. In the past she has been fortunate in holding membership in several chapters and a P. E. O. Group in a foreign country.

In her new home she has found new friends, new business acquaintances, and best of all she received an invitation to dimit to a P. E. O. chapter.

The invitation was eagerly accepted with the anticipation of finding congenial, loving friends. This time, however, the pattern changed. Our P. E. O. sister found that she was the one who always lingered to visit after the chapter meeting in an attempt to become better acquainted. No invitation was extended from those members in the chapter who belonged to the church of her membership to attend various church activities. No contacts were made by the chapter members between meetings unless she made them. She sensed there was no loving cohesive element among the members.

Soon any church or community affair became an excuse not to attend the chapter meetings. This P. E. O. had started on the path that leads to an inactive membership and results in a tragic loss to the individual and to P. E. O.

All women are busy today but we should always have the time to sense the loneliness of a new member either as an initiate or a dimit. If we do not extend such thoughtfulness, P. E. O. becomes just another woman's organization losing the heritage of our founders — Loving Friendship.

Cathleen also placed first in the prints and drawings division and first in the second dimensional classification of the crafts division.

THE FIRST Fine Arts Week at Cottey, emphasizing student competition in original creations in the areas of art, music, literature and the dance, was held in late February. The week of events opened with an impressive torch-lighting ceremony in front of the college chapel and proclamation of the event by Dr. H. Clay Harshbarger, dean of the college.

Representatives of the college's four social societies — Linda Wheat, Natchitoches, Louisiana, president of the Delphians; Sara Steere, Ottawa, Kansas, president of the Emersons; Elizabeth Black, Scottsbluff, Nebraska, president of the Alphans, and Penelope Marks, Tampa, Florida, vice president of the Magnoperians — together lit a gas flame torch erected on the grassy area between the two entrance walks leading to the chapel, the torch to burn throughout the Fine Arts Week. The week was sponsored by the Inter-Society Council with the hope of stimulating interest among students in participating in the fine arts.

WOODEN CHAIR with leather seat and exhibits of weaving were among the student entries in the recent Fine Arts Week show. From the left, art students are Cathleen Muhler, Upper Montclair, New Jersey; Linda Wheat, Natchitoches, Louisiana, Pamela Vosper, Abilene, Texas, who directed the arranging of the show, and Linda Cornell, Fairfield, Connecticut, a member of the student art staff who helped in hanging the show.

Events during the week included an assembly program by music students; two performances by music students of the Broadway musical, "Li'l Abner," presented under the direction of Miss Reta Bowen, instructor in voice; an interpretative dance competition; presentation of the winning entries in the music and literature contest; a bus trip to Joplin, Missouri, to enjoy the free college-sponsored concert by Robert Merrill, Metropolitan Opera baritone; demonstrations by art students; and the all-student art show and competition. This article will deal mainly with the activities of the art department during the Fine Arts Week. The June issue will cover the program of creative work in music, literature, and the dance.

The symbol of the Fine Arts Week was inspired by the flame burning in front of the chapel. It was designed by Cathleen Muhler, second-year art student from Upper Montclair, New Jersey. This symbol was used on attractive ribbons offered for sale to students and staff members who wished to become Patrons of the Arts. Profit from the sale was used to help defray the expense of the week's activities. The symbol was used in a medallion of nickel-silver made by Janis Wilcox, second-year student from Bagley, Iowa, which was awarded to the social society whose members acquired the greatest number of points in competition in the various events. Individual awards were ceramic paperweights made in the shape of the symbol.

A student art show of 150 entries was on display in the gallery of the Blanche Skiff Ross Memorial Library. The show was an exciting and spectacular exhibit of excellent student work in the areas of the crafts, painting, and printmaking. The show was arranged by students under the direction of the president of the Art Staff, Pamela Vosper, Abilene, Texas.

Judges for the show were Mr. Harry Chew, professor of art and chairman of the art department, and instructors, Miss Ellen Williams and Mr. Robert Lawrence.

TO OUR P. E. O. DAUGHTERS

We love you for your precious selves
Just as we love your mother,
And we wanted you in P. E. O.
Far more than any other.

We've hoped our hopes, and prayed our prayers,
And dreamed our dreams for you;
We've longed for good to be your lot
Your whole life through.

Although we know we've often failed
When the path seemed steep or long,
We hope for you more courage,
And for your lips, more song.

And now we've given you our star
To wear, to love, to cherish;
May you never let its light grow dim
Nor let its luster perish.

Hinkhouse Scholars Named by IPA Board

THE MINUTES of the meeting (July 8-10, 1964) of the executive board, P. E. O. Sisterhood, record the establishment of an International Peace Scholarship Fund in honor of Uretta A. Hinkhouse. Pursuant to this action, the Uretta A. Hinkhouse Memorial was established and a total of $18,503.74 was received, representing the memorial gifts of hundreds of individuals and chapters.

In addition, the P. E. O. International Peace Scholarship Fund has received, as its share of the generous bequest of Uretta A. Hinkhouse, the sum of $171,945.15, and these two accounts are now in an investment account in the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company, Chicago, Illinois.

The income of the Memorial Fund is used for the purpose of granting scholarship aid, and, at the present time, only the income from the Hinkhouse bequest is being used for this purpose. However, the trustees may draw necessary funds from this bequest for maintaining the project or for granting scholarships, when such needs arise.

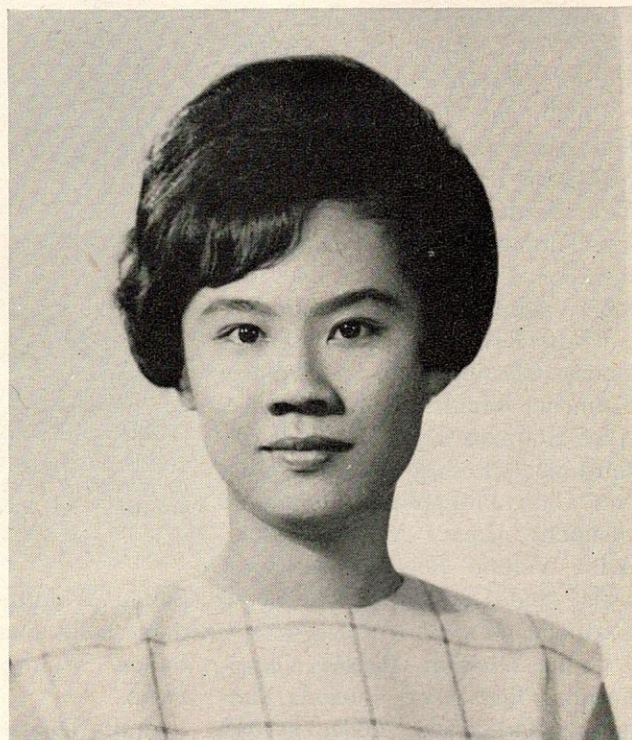

The trustees are pleased to announce the granting of scholarship assistance to four students, all to be known as Hinkhouse Scholars of 1968-1969.

The student selected for the renewal graduate study assistance is Evelyn Hidalgo, of the Philippines, who is studying for a doctorate in English, at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon. Monthana (Francie) Tanthana of Thailand, is the recipient of the renewal Cottey grant.

The graduate grant for a new student was awarded to Patricia Ngozi Okeke of Biafra, West Africa, who is working at Indiana University, for an M.A. in Library Science. Phyllis Mok, of Hong Kong, a first year student at Cottey, is the second Hinkhouse Scholar attending Cottey College.

The four students have prepared resumes which are presented with this announcement. —
Dorothy Griffith, Chairman, P. E. O. International Peace Scholarship Fund

MONTHANA TANTHANA
Thailand — Cottey College

I WAS THE ELDEST child of my parents. When I was three years old, I went to Chinese Nursing School. When I was five, I transferred to St. Joseph's Convent which is Catholic and run by French nuns. From grade 2 up to grade 10, I was appointed by teachers to be a leader of the class.

Although St. Joseph's Convent had grade 11 and 12, I wanted to transfer to Triam Udom Suksa School which is called a pre-university of Chulalongkorn. It is also a coed high school. In entering to Triam Udom Suksa, I had to take an entrance examination. There are two sections in the school, science and liberal Arts. I was lucky to be one of 1,100 out of 3,000 students in science. Before my first year at Triam Udom Suksa was over, I went to apply for an AFS (American Field Service) Scholarship over at the USIS (United States Information Service).

It was the summer of 1963 that I was one of 110 who passed the written test out of 450. Two weeks later, I found out that I was one of 32 who passed an interview. The total of students from Thailand was 72 students — that meant that another 40 students were from other provinces besides Bangkok. I went back to Triam Udom Suksa School on my second year for 3 months, then I left for Corona, California.

My year in the U.S.A. was a very good year. My American family took me to see many universities such as Santa Barbara, Stanford, and Whittier. That year I had made up my mind in coming back to the U.S.A. for a college education.

When I went home I found that all my dreams of coming back to the U.S.A. would never come true. Many AFS students went home and instead of going back to school, they went to work with the European or American companies. These students receive salary higher than a Thai students who graduate from the university of Bangkok. The reason is that these students speak and understand English better than others. With this reason, along with the financial difficulty at home (my step-father had a stroke and he was bedfast for 16 months and my half brother had leukemia for 19 months before he passed away), I decided to quit school to help my family.

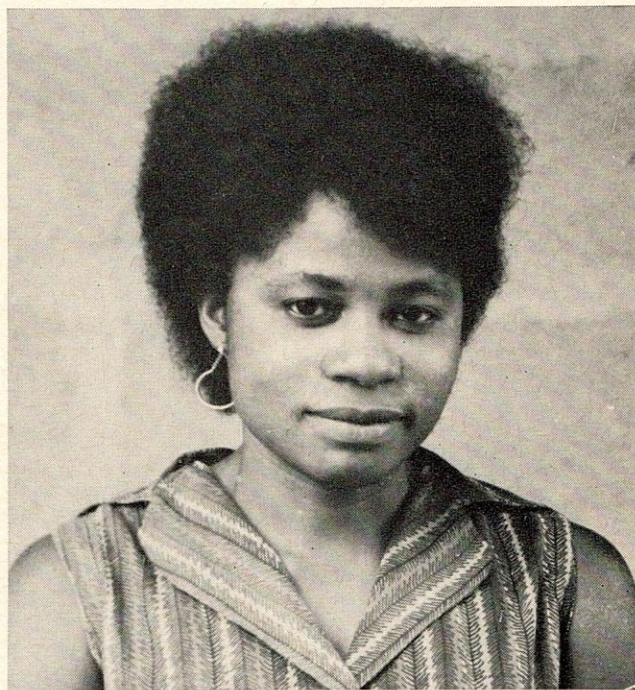

My first job was with the American National Red Cross and it was very successful. I worked for the ARC for 19 months, then I went to work with the Colgate-Palmolive (Thailand) Company who offered me more salary. I found that I was the youngest employees and I had the least experiences. While working with the ARC, I thought I was pretty smart since I was able to speak and understand English. And I was the only Thai employee in that office. But there were a lot difference at the Colgate office. I found out that I was not the only one who went abroad, I was not the only one who can speak English. Many of the supervisors had been to Australia, England and the U.S.A. for over four years. They all have Master degree. I knew then that education and knowledge are very important for a person who has to earn a living and support a family.

The day that I met Mrs. Eleanor Hoge (Mrs. G. J.) of Chapter V, Utah, was the beginning day of my new life. Through her, I learn about the Cottey College, the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the IPS.

I can say that I am happy and glad to be a Senior of Cottey this year. I would like to tell you that I owe a lot to you, the P. E. O. members, Mr. Parker and President McCarrel who have faith in me. Without your help and support, I know I could not come to study in your country.

My dreams for the future are that I will be able to transfer to either the Michigan State University or the Southern Illinois University. Of course, it depends a great deal on the financial, too. (I plan to work summer and also during the school of my third and fourth year of college.) My major is now Elementary Education and minor in Business. After I receive my Bachelor Degree, I have two plans. First, I might continue on my Master Degree. Second, I might go back to Bangkok and for the first couple years I will work as a secretary.

With the knowledge I receive, I should be able to support my mother and myself. Then I hope to get marry to a man who is able to support me so that I can be a teacher. The reason that I will not be a teacher is that teacher's salary in Bangkok is very low when compares with the secretary's income. I know that I will enjoy being a teacher who can teach the children and I will be able to give them the advise. And this is the end of my future dreams.

PATRICIA N. OKEKE
Biafra — Indiana University

MISS PATSY NGOZI OKEKE is a citizen of the Republic of Biafra (former E. Nigeria). Her family lives in a large commercial city of Onitsha, where her father owns a small timber business. She has five brothers, five sisters, many cousins and other relatives all of whom live with her family.

She attended a boarding primary school and a boarding high school run by Irish and American nuns respectively. In 1965, she got a scholarship to study history in St. Mary's College, Notre Dame. In January, 1968, Miss Okeke got her B.A.

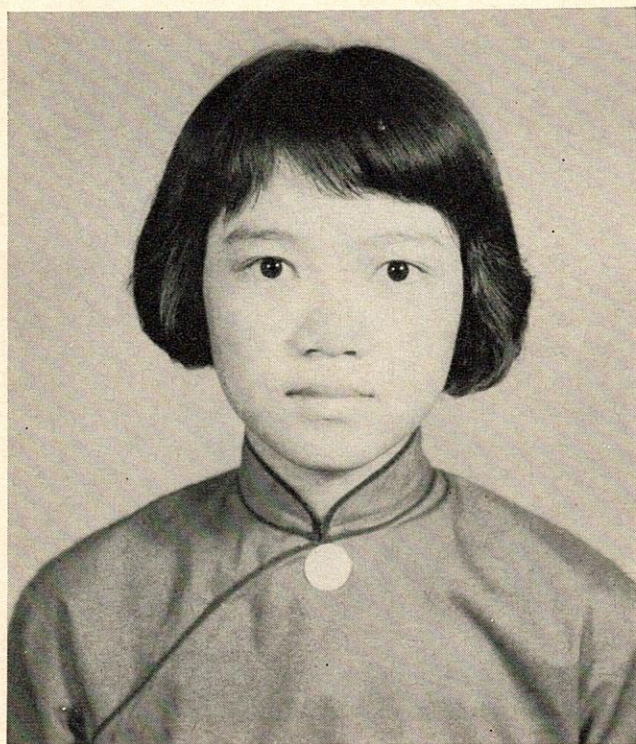

degree in history plus a special certificate in African Studies.

By this time, Miss Okeke had been completely cut off from her home, her family, and her sponsor, because of the war going on between Biafra and Nigeria. Consequently, she could not go home, as was formerly planned. Luckily for her, she was able to get an Indiana University Fellowship and, later, the P. E. O. International Peace Scholarship, to do graduate work in Library Science.

Miss Okeke is so happy for this opportunity offered her to do graduate work, because, not only is she more aware of her country's major problems (poverty, illiteracy, and disease), but she is now better prepared in library services to play a significant role in combatting one of these problems, illiteracy, when she goes home. She hopes to go as soon as it is possible. ■

Being a physical therapist is both interesting and rewarding. Just as other medical or social workers, there is an opportunity to encounter people of different ages, races, religious and different socio-economic and educational levels. Also, physical therapy is the profession in which married women are welcomed as part-time workers after their marriage.

The first step I must take to reach my goal is to obtain a baccalaureate degree with emphasis in biological and physical sciences and in humanities. Then I can enter as a candidate for the certificate in Physical Therapy. After that, I intend to obtain a master degree in Physical Therapy, with working experiences in hospital or rehabilitation research in treatment area. At present, I confine myself to finding voluntary service in a physical therapy department so that I can learn more about my future career and prove myself helpful.

PHYLLIS WAI-YIN MOK
Hong Kong — Cottey College

DUE TO extensive research work and the wide application of science, rapid medical advances have been made and the life of many have been saved and prolonged. Yet the victims of polio, arthritis, strokes, cerebral palsy and war, though alive, are disabled and suffering searing pain. So another medical branch aiming at achieving ultimate restoration of disabled people to their maximum capacity, both in physique and emotion, has risen. This is known as physical therapy and is the career I intend to follow.

EVELYN S. HIDALGO
Philippines — University of Oregon

MY FIRST DAY in this big, beautiful world was February 9, 1942, and, since then, I have been following my shadow wherever it will take me, and, so far, it has taken me from Manila to Iloilo City, Philippines, my present hometown, and on to about 20 per cent of the United States.

I spent my early years of training mostly in all girls' schools, where I learned cooking, embroidery, art, and religion, in addition to the regular academic load. I graduated with honors from the elementary grades, did very well in high school, but college was one of the high points of my life.

Not only was I a top scholar in the College of Education at Central Philippine University; more important, I really got involved in campus activities. I have been a student representative to the Student Council, vice-president of the Education Council, president of the Circulo Español, a delegate to national student conferences, an ROTC sponsor, besides being a Kappa Delta Pi member.

I have a penchant for writing. In college, I was literary editor of The University Organ, and during my senior year, I was chosen editor-in-chief of the Centralite Yearbook.

I got my B.S. in Education from C.P.U. in the summer of 1961.

A desire to learn more and to be better prepared to teach in my field (English) impelled me to go on to graduate school. I hold a credential to teach English as a Second Language from UCLA, and an M.A. in English from Sacramento State.

My first contact with P. E. O. was in 1966 when I started my doctoral program in English at the University of Oregon. That was my first year as an International Peace Scholar. I have been an IPS scholar for the past two years now, and obtaining the Hinkhouse Scholarship is indeed a pleasant surprise.

When I obtain my Ph.D. in English, I would like to join the ranks of educators and prepare materials to be taught in schools. ■

A Message from the Chairman
HAZEL MAY WOOD

FOR MOST OF YOU, I suspect information about the P. E. O. Foundation has been a matter of dollars and cents, tax deductions and legal forms through which you can make gifts to our projects. I suspect that for most P. E. O.'s it is a matter of concern primarily for the treasurer, to be referred to when the chapter, in an affluent mood, wants to make special gifts or when a member wants to designate a bequest through a will. Perhaps you are among those who believe that our work on the Foundation board must be extremely dull, a necessary but prosaic service.

When people voice this sentiment, I find myself with mixed emotions — a little like my friend who bakes excellent bread. Some who are lucky enough to get an occasional warm loaf on baking day say, "Aren't you wonderful! I know I couldn't do it!" And my friend tells me that she is always torn between letting them think that she is, indeed, wonderful, that baking bread is really a difficult feat, and the alternative of letting them know that all you need is to be home for six hours to be there at the right moment when something needs to be done in the breadmaking process.

So if today you are thinking that we are wonderful to do all the drudgery that is involved in the Foundation, let me disillusion you here and now. We love it! Granted our assignment is concerned with forms, and correspondence, investments and interest and taxes. These are only the mechanics of the job. Those of us who perform these duties never think of these things as the Foundation. They are only what makes the Foundation work, the means to the end, as the dishwashing, bedmaking and sweeping of the floor are only the mechanics of a happy home.

Let me tell you about the Foundation as we see it — we who have worked on the board as the Foundation has developed from an idea, a practical necessity, to the useful place it serves in P. E. O. today.

Early in the history of P. E. O. came the realization that the influence of its ideals and purposes could reach beyond the influence that each of us as individuals could exert. We realized that as a group we could be a force for good in the larger world. So we established the P. E. O. Educational Fund as our first modest venture, extending our financial and human resources to the lives of those outside the sisterhood. From the P. E. O. Educational Fund we moved to Cottey College, and later to the P. E. O. International Peace Scholarship Fund. These have been eminently successful, but they are also beginnings. We continue to learn, to evaluate the needs that surround us, to measure these against our resources and our potential resources. I have no doubt that we will assume new tasks, meet other needs when the time is right and the way is clear.

It was a fairly simple process to administer one project in our sisterhood. The Foundation exists to simplify the administration of our present three Supreme Chapter projects, to assist in state chapter projects, and serve those of the future. I also like to think of the P. E. O. Foundation as a part of a threefold concept of P. E. O. Our ideals and our stated purposes are the bases, the reason for our being. Our projects are channels through which we translate our ideals into action, into constructive good in the world. Therefore, the P. E. O. Foundation is a vehicle through which we can give financial support to our projects.

So as I do my Foundation work, I find myself involved in a little consecutive translation, to use a term currently popular in international relations today. I may be writing $50.00, but I am thinking, "Ten books for that lovely girl who is studying to be a biochemist." I may record $100.00, but I am thinking, "Room and board for that fine young woman who will soon leave California to take her American education back to her home in India." I may read a form stating that we are to receive a bequest of $5,000.00 for use at Cottey, and I think, "Some day a new building?"

A small chapter in some remote little town in South Dakota may send me a check for $10.00 in memory of a beloved member. The amount is small but to me it is the heart of a group of women paying tribute to one of their own by making something educationally possible to a woman they will never know. And as the Foundation board designates even so small a gift to the work of one of our projects, we know that we are investing more than money, we are investing the humanity of our members.

To those of us who are privileged to be P. E. O.'s, and to the outside world who observes us, our projects and the Foundation that serves our projects stand as evidence of our determination not to live in isolation. We know that humanity is not something or someone else. We are a part of humanity, responsible for what it is and what it does. The Foundation and the projects it serves stand as evidence of our faith in ourselves and our beliefs, evidence of our confidence in the potential of others.

The P. E. O. Foundation is our newest endeavor, another beginning, but it has opened new avenues for the growth of our projects in making it possible for

P. E. O.'s to include the Foundation in not only gifts but "Wills" and devises (real and personal property).

If you think you have any member or members in your chapter interested in knowing how their gifts can be channeled through the Foundation, write the member of the P. E. O. Foundation Board of Trustees who has direction of your state as listed with this article.

The P. E. O. Foundation asks that you send a few books occasionally (in the shape of money), or an American education for a girl from Africa, or a chance of college for an American girl, or some needed asset for Cottey. Send not just a check, but a piece of paper that looks like a check and is really evidence of your social awareness, your confidence in P. E. O. and its significance in our troubled but exciting world. Even so small a contribution as we are able to make in this world of large needs becomes an active element of the first order for the progress, the understanding and the peace of all the world's peoples.

This is the meaning of the Foundation. ■

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

LOREE MELTON, Chairman
Board of Trustees

YOUR P. E. O. Supply Department is a merchandising business. It buys all record books, forms, stationery, gavels and other items necessary for the smooth operation of more than 4000 chapters. It distributes this inventory at a margin sufficient to cover cost of material and handling. The staff is skilled at interpreting government postal regulations since they often package, wrap, weigh and stamp several thousand packages in a single month. Sometimes they are not as skilled at interpreting your orders because you have been careless.

Madam Treasurer!

Get Smart — and check the List of Supplies of Local Chapters with each officer. Don't wait until September — or until the organizer or her proxy may be coming for a visit — to place orders with the Supply Department. On page 18 of the September, 1968, issue of THE P. E. O. RECORD you will find, not only the current price list, but also helpful suggestions for placing orders correctly.

Centennial Charms

Don't you be the one to envy your P. E. O. sister because she ordered a Centennial Charm and you did not. The charm will become a collector's item since it will not be available after the close of our centennial year, December, 1969. The charm comes in two styles — the gold star mounted on a gold disc, and the gold star mounted on a sterling silver disc. The charm can be worn on a bracelet, on a chain as a necklace, or as a pendant from a pin. Perhaps you will wish to make an heirloom arrangement such as shown on the January cover of THE P. E. O. RECORD. The charms can be secured only from the P. E. O. Supply Department.

The Centennial Charm can be ordered through the treasurer of your local chapter, or an individual may place an order by giving chapter affiliation (chapter letters, state) with the order. The price of the charm is $6.00. Make your check payable to the P. E. O. Supply Department and send your order to The Supply Department, P. E. O. Executive Office, 3700 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50312.

Supply Department Workshop

The trustees of the P. E. O. Supply Department look forward to meeting many of you during the Convention of Supreme Chapter in October. We extend to you a special invitation to attend our workshop. Watch your convention program for announcement of the time and place.

The P.E.O. Educational Fund

Policy Changes Announced

THE TRUSTEES of the P.E.O. Educational Fund continually study the policies governing loans from the Fund as related to changing conditions in the educational field. Some changes have been made this year and are reflected in the Chapter Recommendation Form and the Policies Under Which Loans May be Made as published in this issue. You will find these changes in the following sections:

SECTION III, Special Courses: The following wording, as stated in previous Policies, has been deleted — "If they are courses of not less than six months of study."

SECTION IV: Mention of a borrower's total indebtedness and the paragraph relating to her attendance at the nearest school at which she can get her desired course have been deleted.

SECTION V: The former marriage clause has been reworded to provide for extension of payment under certain circumstances.

SECTION VII: The chapter's responsibility to explain the marriage clause has been rewritten in accordance with Section V.

Will you please study all of these changes and keep this copy of THE P.E.O. RECORD for reference. A reprint of the Chapter Recommendation Form and the single sheet of Policies will not be available until fall; the changes, however, are now effective. In the meantime, the present forms will be used and may be ordered at any time from the P. E. O. Executive Office, 3700 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50312.

Provincial and State Chapter Presidents: Will you please send to me the name and address of the new P. E. O. Educational Fund Chairman immediately after she is appointed following your convention. This is necessary so that she will receive promptly important information that will be sent throughout the year. — Margaret Holliday (Mrs. M. W.), Chairman, P. E. O. The P. E. O. Educational Fund

Policies Under Which Loans May be Made

I. Purpose of the Fund

The P. E. O. Educational Fund is a project which makes loans available to qualified girls and women who desire higher education as a means of becoming self-supporting.

II. Eligibility

An applicant must be a high school graduate or have equivalent educational training. She must be recommended by a local chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood.

Loans are made to married women, but not to those whose husbands are also students.

Loans shall not be made to students from foreign countries who are in the United States or Canada on a limited visa.

An applicant for a loan for study in a recognized foreign college or university must be a citizen of the United States or Canada.

III. Types and Amounts of Available Loans

The maximum amount of a loan to any student is $1,250.

College seniors or graduate students may draw the full amount of a loan in one academic year. Undergraduates may draw up to $625 for one year of study. Loans to students in other courses are subject to certain requirements defined below:

For College Freshmen

Loans are available for college freshmen and may be drawn against after the satisfactory completion of one semester of study, (or one quarter or trimester of study in schools grading on such a system.) An official transcript of grades is required as evidence of satisfactory academic standing before an installment of a loan may be drawn.

For Medical Students

Loans are available on satisfactory completion of one year in medical school.

For Professional Nursing

Loans are available to students training to become professional nurses and may be drawn against after the satisfactory completion of the probationary period in a hospital, or one semester of college study as required by the course.

For Summer School

Loans to students in summer school are limited to $400.

For Foreign Study

Loans are available to undergraduate students for study abroad for a year or for a summer session if the credits are accepted by the college or university in the United States or Canada from which the student expects to graduate.

Loans are available to graduate students for credit study in recognized foreign colleges or universities.

For Commercial Courses

Loans for commercial courses in business colleges are limited to $300 for a course of six months, $400 for a course of nine months, $600 for a course of twelve to eighteen months. For the expenses of the first month, $50 may be released with the remainder on evidence of satisfactory progress.

For Special Courses

Loans for some technical and specialized courses in accredited schools will be considered. These include courses for medical and X-ray technicians, dental assistants and technicians, some types of therapists and practical nursing.

Loans may be considered for correspondence courses providing they bridge into regular college work.

Note:

Information on special courses should be requested for study before the recommendation for the loan is made. Loans are not granted for private lessons, beauty culture or theatrical study. Loans are not available for part-time study or for night school courses, except when such study will lead to the completion of the course within a reasonable time.

IV. Terms and Regulations

Loans are made for educational purposes only. One responsible cosigner shall be required for each loan.

Loans are issued in installments, on the dates and in the amounts requested by the borrower, subject to the policies of the P. E. O. Educational Fund. Each installment is represented by a separate note due five years from the date on which it is issued. The sum of all installments requested by an undergraduate student in one academic year must not exceed $625, except senior students. The rate of interest is 4%, due annually on the anniversary date of each note of a loan and payable at the P. E. O. Executive Office. Notice of interest will be sent to the student at the proper time.

An applicant under 21 years of age must furnish written consent of parents or guardian on a form furnished as a part of the application forms.

A student must maintain the scholastic average required by the school of her registration.

To be eligible for further installments, a student is expected to correspond with the executive secretary at intervals concerning progress in her course of study.

A health certificate signed by a doctor of medicine is not required except when deemed advisable by the board of trustees.

V. Repayment

As soon as a borrower is out of school through graduation or withdrawal, her loan is to be repaid in regular monthly payments. The amount of payment shall be as large as possible with a minimum of $10.

When a loan is not repaid before marriage, the executive secretary shall endeavor to secure a substantial principal payment, payment of all interest due, and renew the balance by a note signed by both the girl and husband and by original cosigner or cosigners, calling for monthly payments in a sum commensurate with the balance of the loan.

VI. Chapter Procedure in Sponsoring the Applicant

The Interview

Following contact with the student in need of assistance, the Educational Committee of the chapter interviews her. This is to ascertain her eligibility for a loan, the soundness of her proposed program of study, her reliability and that of her family (See Chapter Recommendation Form for specific information to be obtained.)

Chapter Approval

The committee presents the request for a loan to the chapter at a regular or special meeting. It may be voted on at the same meeting. The vote shall be by written ballot and shall be recorded in the minutes of that meeting as evidence that a quorum was present.

The Recommendation Form

The Chapter Recommendation Form on the preceding page may be used, or copies may be secured from the executive office. A duplicate shall be made also, and retained in the chapter file. This form is for chapter use ONLY and should be filled in completely by the chairman of the Educational Committee. (Were the student asked to fill in part of the information, she might erroneously believe she had thus applied for a loan. As explained below, application forms are sent to her from the executive office.) In completing the form, fill in all spaces. Under Report of Chapter Vote, if there were no unfavorable votes, write "NONE".

The date on which a beginning student enters a course, particularly that of nursing, commercial or technical studies, must be shown on this form to determine her eligibility for the first installment of the loan.

When application forms are to be sent to a student during the summer months, be sure to state the address where the applicant may be reached. See that the form is properly signed.

A letter should accompany this Chapter Recommendation Form covering such points as additional information about the girl, her need for a loan and her family situation. Send the Chapter Recommendation Form and letter to
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY
P. E. O. EDUCATIONAL FUND
3700 GRAND AVENUE
DES MOINES, IOWA 50312

On receipt of completed Chapter Recommendation Form, the executive office mails application forms to the girl with instructions for procedure. When application forms are returned by the girl to the executive office, one copy is then sent to the sponsoring chapter for their records.

Additional Loans

Before the original loan has been repaid, a girl who has not borrowed the maximum amount may apply for an additional loan when needed for further study. She must be recommended again by her sponsoring chapter. In such case, the chapter should secure from the executive office the necessary form called Chapter Recommendation for Additional Loan. Instructions for bringing the application up to date will also be sent.

Second Loans

When an original loan has been entirely repaid according to agreement, the girl is eligible for a second loan for further study. The same procedure is required as for an original loan.

VII. Chapter Responsibility

Each sponsoring chapter should feel responsibility:

To ascertain the eligibility and integrity of an applicant. To offer friendly encouragement and to keep in touch with the girl until the loan is repaid in full. When a course is of short duration, such as a commercial course in a business college, a close contact should be maintained.

To cooperate with the executive secretary in all matters pertaining to a loan girl. Marriage, withdrawal from school, or any other facts affecting the payment of a loan should be reported to the executive secretary promptly.

To discuss with the girl the importance of repaying the loan before marriage.

To keep a record book in which is recorded a history of the chapter's loan girls.

To inform your State Chapter Education Chairman when a girl has been granted a loan or when a loan has been repaid in full.

A student should not apply for a loan larger than the sum recommended by the sponsoring chapter.

The budget in the application should show all anticipated expenses and income (including the P. E. O. loan) for the remaining period of the student's course of study.

Before a check is issued, a note, provided by the executive office, must be signed by the student and her cosigners and returned.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS AND HOW THEY GREW

Work, Dedication Brought Success for Loan Fund

THE LOUISIANA Purchase Exposition in Saint Louis, Missouri, 1904, by legend or by fact is credited with introducing many innovations that have become a part of the American scene — the ice cream sandwich, the ice cream soda, iced tea, the venerable 'hot dog,' and, of course, "Meet me in St. Louie, Louie — Meet me at the Fair." P. E. O.'s are aware that another phenomenon is an outgrowth of that Fair, the P. E. O. Educational Fund. It has evolved from the six hundred plus dollars left in the treasury after an especially enterprising undertaking, P. E. O. Day at the World's Fair, June 18, 1904.

At the 1903 convention of what was then the Supreme Grand Chapter of P. E. O., Chapter O, Saint Louis, with what can only be considered outrageous enthusiasm, proposed the idea of constructing a P. E. O. building on grounds of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, a building that would continue to be used by P. E. O. The cost of such a building was deemed prohibitive, but the convention favored holding a P. E. O. Day at the Fair, Chapter

WOULD YOU BELIEVE

MY DEAR SISTERS:

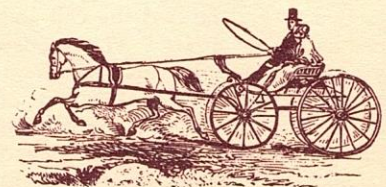

Your board of trustees has promised loans to a lot of new girls, and the amount promised is so much larger than the amount in the treasury, that we are scared stiff — to use the vernacular. We beg every chapter to make a contribution to the fund this year, and early if possible. If every chapter makes a donation as large as it has in the past we shall be all right, and able to meet our obligations. — Plea from Educational Fund, October, 1912.

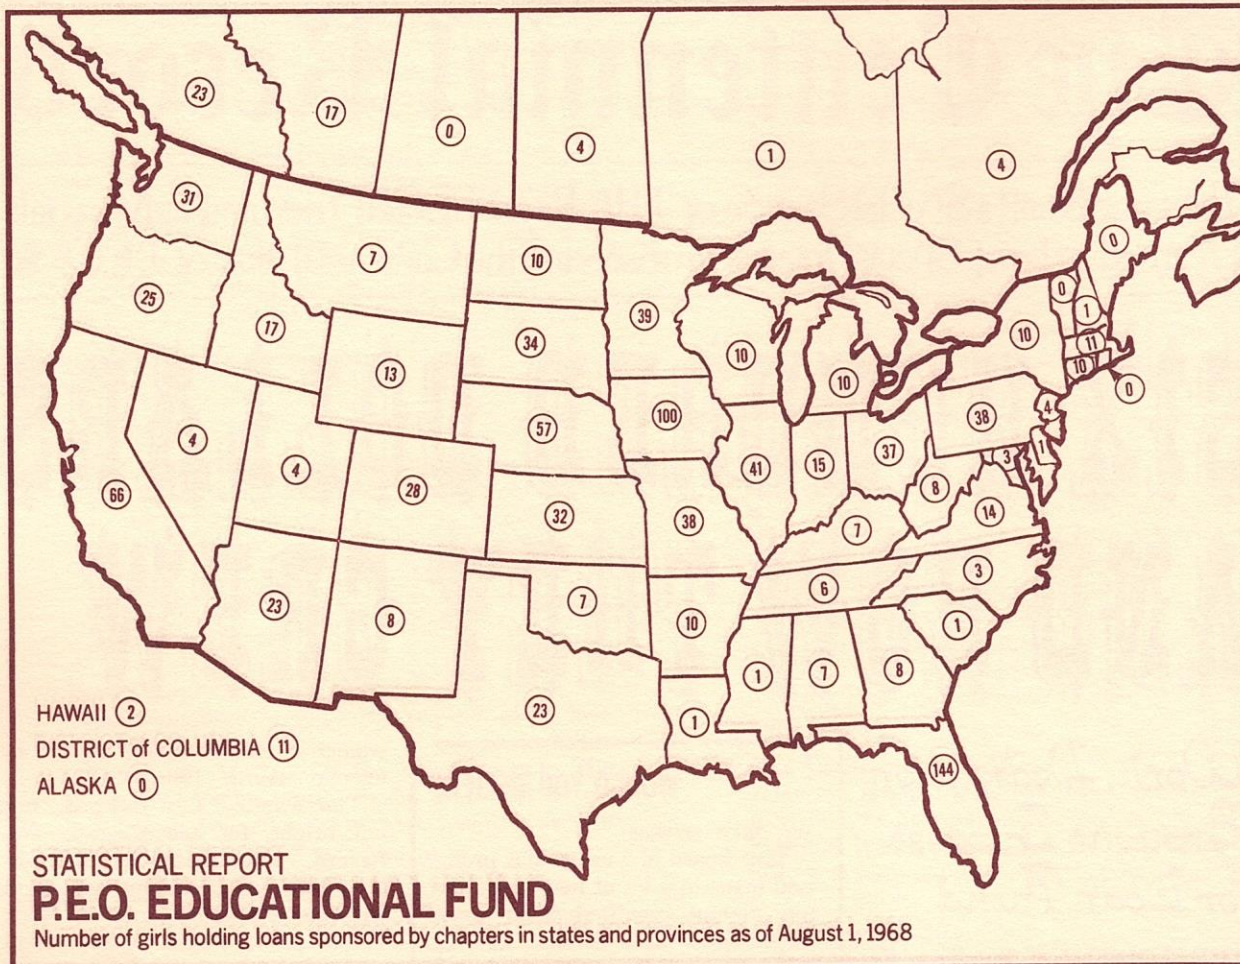

O being charged with authority to plan the event and solicit contributions from chapters.

Chapter O responded with gusto, and grand were the plans they made. The committee on decorations had a formidable task, a preliminary report noting the committee was "making an effort to secure flower beds in the shape of our star, to be kept blossoming in yellow and white during the entire Exposition; also electrical and fireworks display upon June 18, souvenirs to be finished for the day, invitations to be engraved, for both the day and reception and sent to all chapters, World's Fair officials, foreign dignitaries, and women's clubs." (THE P. E. O. RECORD, April, 1904).

The awaited day dawned, but not bright, for according to The Record, "The big gilded dome of the Missouri Building glistened with steadily falling rain on June 18, when the P. E. O. Sisterhood assembled beneath it in the spacious assembly room. Glancing about on entering, one saw profuse and artistic draping of white and yellow, quantities of marguerites, palms, and — but no longer than a glimpse of these could be had at first. For certain dainty girls with slender wands in their hands, tied with multi-bowed yellow and white ribbon, being the sergeant-at-arms of this assembly, would then take one in charge, and see that she enrolled at a table where Mrs. Carroll, and Mrs. Lukens and divers others of the St. Louis chapter, presided at times, over the enrolling book, and the badges or souvenirs, and the programs. Thence away to the assigned seat, and there was time to observe the personnel. Undoubtedly everyone looked happy. She seemed to feel that an anticipated pleasure had at last become reality."

THE MAP ABOVE shows the number of borrowers from the P. E. O. Educational Fund holding loans at the time of the August 1, 1968, audit and the distribution of the borrowers in United States and Canada. For further statistics see "Figuratively Speaking" in this section.

The program of the day featured varied musical selections, greetings from P. E. O. dignitaries from the state chapters. The two main addresses were by Founder Alice Bird Babb speaking on The Evolution of P. E. O., and Mrs. Alice Lukens, president of Chapter O, St. Louis, on The Needs of Women's Club. All visiting P. E. O.'s were guests of the Exposition at a tea, courtesy of the Board of Lady Managers of which Mrs. McCoy Andrews, a P. E. O. from Washington, D. C., was a member.

When all bills were tallied after the eventful day, there was $658.88 left over — Chapter O had done its job well, and P. E. O.'s had heeded the call and responded generously. This money was turned over to Supreme Grand Chapter with the final report of P. E. O. Day at the convention of 1905. The convention voted to add to this from its treasury to make an even sum of $800 and, as related in The Story of P. E. O., "this was given the rather gloomy name 'Memorial Fund'" and state and local chapters were invited to make contributions to it and to consider an appropriate use for it to be presented at the next convention.

Three proposals for using the fund were presented at the 1907 convention: Emilie Costigan of Colorado proposed that a P. E. O. Home be built in Colorado; Addie Manzer of Missouri recommended that the sisterhood establish a printing plant; Lillian Parmele, Nebraska, suggested that the fund be used to provide scholarships for worthy young women.

There was a good amount of debate, parliamentary and otherwise, all plans being discussed with sentiment tending toward the scholarship idea, though a recognized drawback here was that the money would most likely be tied to certain areas. Louella McHenry, Iowa, suggested that the money be used for educational loans rather than scholarships.

The business at hand was considered through several sessions of convention, and on the day before convention's close the motion to establish a P. E. O. Home was read for question. Mrs. Parmele of Nebraska moved to amend that motion by substituting the word "scholarship" for the word "home."

Understandably, this caused a little flurry as certainly the intent of the original motion was changed, but the amendment was ruled in order. Before the question was put, Lou Spencer of Nebraska moved to amend the amendment by striking the word "scholarships" and making the motion read "that we loan the Memorial Fund for educational purposes."

Educational Fund has provided over $8,000,000 in loans to well over 15,000 young women seeking financial aid in attaining higher education.

Then, Winona Evans Reeves, author of The Story of P. E. O., dispensed with the gloomy title, Memorial Fund, by motion to effect that the fund be known as the Educational Fund.

And so the first educational philanthropy of P. E. O. was underway, a stimulating and far-reaching project, attuned to the general interests of the sisterhood; a rallying mark that had been searched for through the years as the ever-widening circle of friendship started by seven young college girls grew and waxed strong.

A Focal Point of Endeavor

There was widespread pleasure in choice of the project, and it should be pointed out that the convention report states: "The three plans were before the convention, and debate began at once, lasting more than an hour, temperately carried on in the best sisterly spirit, with question, answer, proposals of plans, resolutions and amendments." The matter decided, all got behind it and it was moved that a committee of three be appointed by the next executive board to have disposition of the fund which by this time, through interest accrued and gifts, had grown to $2,000.

The first loan was made in May, 1908. It was for $300, made to a young woman who attended Iowa State Teachers' College, Cedar Falls. At the next convention of of Supreme Chapter in 1909, the present plan of a three-member board of trustees was established and the fund, then grown to $5,000, was to be administered by the treasurer of Supreme Chapter, a bonded officer. The first rules of administration were adopted by the 1909 convention including stipulations that loans not be made for a longer term than five years, in amounts not to exceed $350 to one applicant for one year of study or $500 if for more than one year, to be loaned to young women having completed the equivalent of a high school course and who had attained the age of 18 years.

From 1909 to 1916 the Educational Fund grew from $5000 to $40,000. Enthusiasm was high, but support was given its real push at the convention of Colorado State Chapter in 1916 when the state's president, Ida Campbell, recommended that for due commemoration of the Golden Jubilee of P. E. O. in 1919 the convention adopt the slogan, "$100,000 in the Educational Fund in 1919," and that they seek to have other states do likewise. This carried, and Miss Margaret Durward, president of Supreme Chapter, who just happened to be from Colorado, carried the campaign into all the states, and each and every one took up the cry. Chapters held musicales, bazaars, rum-

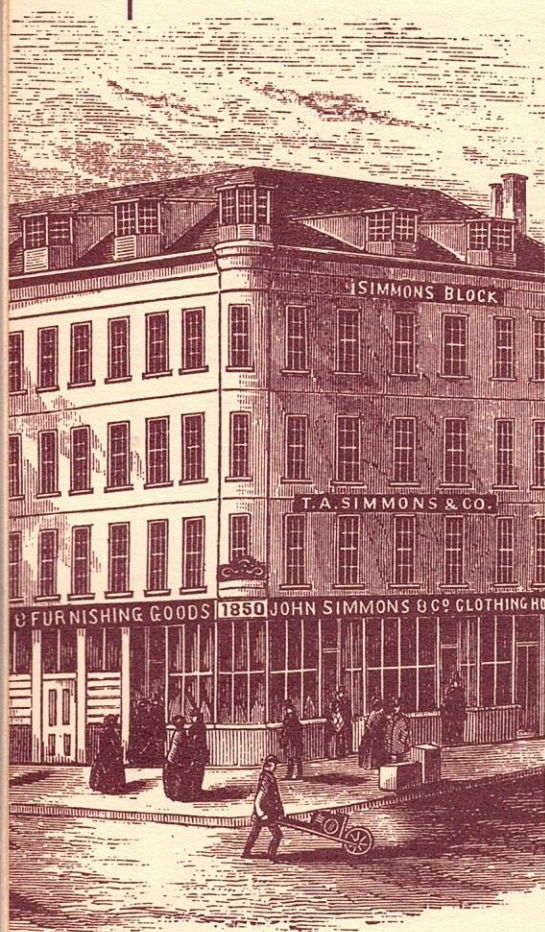

"MEET ME AT THE FAIR"

THERE IS immense work behind the scenes in any endeavor that becomes a success, and most often, "things don't come easy." P. E. O. Day at the St. Louis Exposition was no exception. The following item is a plea from the Chairman of P. E. O. Day, (Mrs. W. E. Andrews, O, St. Louis) urging chapters in no uncertain terms to support the endeavor not only with their dollars but by their presence:

"P. E. O. day means a day with other days at the exposition. England, France, Germany, all foreign countries, our own states, societies, clubs, organizations of all kinds, are doing their utmost to make their day a memorable event in their history. Shall P. E. O. do less? P. E. O. is second to none. Shall our day be second?"

"The fact is very positive that a large attendance is not only desired but necessary. This is the sisterhood day and the sisterhood is responsible for having the day and must support it by their presence and finance."

There can be stronger presentation of this case. What will you do about it? Act at once. Begin to make every plan to attend on that day. It would be disgraceful to come up with less than hundreds of the sisterhood. If you go to the exposition at all, go then. — THE P. E. O. RECORD, May, 1904.

mage sales, patriotic picture shows, food sales, Thanksgiving offerings, card parties, gave plays, tied comforts, and when the reports came in at the fiftieth anniversary convention in Denver, the goal had been reached and over the top — $111,800.23.

In addition, at this convention Chapter O, St. Louis, which had turned over the nucleus of the Fund after The Exposition, made a gift of $500 and established the Endowment Fund, interest only from which was to be added to the Loan Fund and used for loans. Other convention gifts to the Endowment Fund brought it to $2300 and through the years the Endowment Fund has increased to $26,431 (1967), and the interest from the Endowment Fund has been a continual addition to the Loan Fund, source of the money which is circulated for loans.

P. E. O. — Here We Go!

Nothing succeeds like success. The fact that the Golden Jubilee goal was achieved spurred chapters to take an active part in finding young women who would benefit from its resources, and the potential of this philanthropy caught the imagination of all.

Illinois State Chapter issued a clarion call from its first convention following the Golden Jubilee: "Shall we stop and rest, or shall we go on?" At that time there were 30,000 P. E. O. members — 'Let's double!' went up the chorus. A motion was sent to the Supreme Chapter: Double the Educational Fund by 1923. Thus evolved the following P. E. O. Educational Fund yell —

P. E. O. — P. E. O.
P stands for Push
E stands for Education
O stands for On PUSH EDUCATION ON!
HERE WE GO — P. E. O.

Throughout the years since 1907, over 15,000 young women have been borrowers from the Educational Fund, finding help when needed, a stepping stone to success. Over $8,000,000 in loans has been granted since 1907. The number of borrowers and the amount loaned for the six-month period ending March 1, 1969, shows a considerable advance over the comparable period one year ago: $130,000 to 178 students (8/1/68 to 3/1/69) in comparison to $106,000 to 141 (8/1/67 to 3/1/68).

So — if not the old education Fund yell — how about three cheers — the Fund has cut some meaningful figures in its 60-plus years!

KINDNESS OF KIND DOLLARS

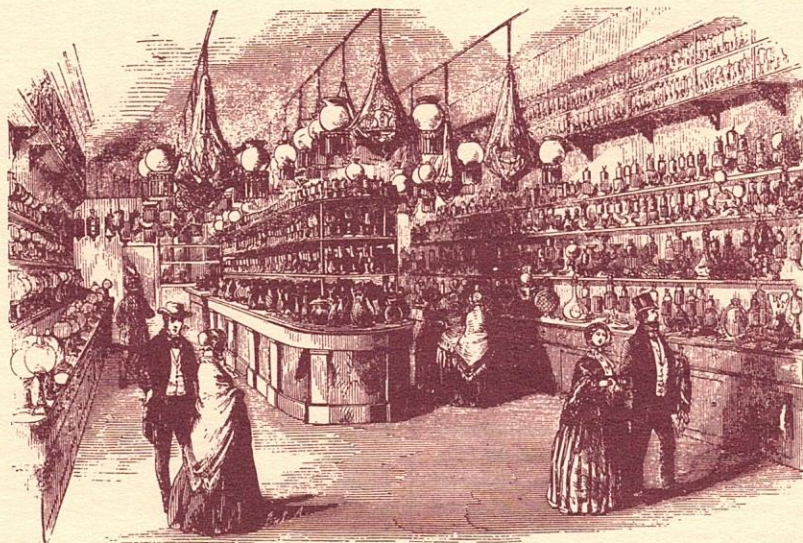

*One never knows
How far a word of kindness goes;
One never sees
How far a smile of friendship flees,
Down, through the years,
The deed forgotten reappears.*

*One never knows
How far a P. E. O. dollar goes;
One never sees
To whom or where it flees,
Down through the years
A dollar forgotten reappears.*

*One kind dollar
The soul of many here has stirred;
Our girls go their way
And tell with each passing day
Until life's end:
"Once the P. E. O.'s were my friends."*

*We cannot say
What lips are praising us today;
We cannot tell
Whose prayers ask God to guard
us well,
But kindness lives
Beyond the memory of her who gives.*

(The above poem by Bertha Clark Hughes, a president of Supreme Chapter, was a part of her report as treasurer of the Educational Fund, given at the Golden Jubilee Convention of P. E. O. in 1919 at Denver, Colorado. For the fiftieth anniversary of P. E. O., a goal of $100,000 for the Educational Fund had been set, and it was at the convention that the jubilant announcement was made that the goal had been reached, and then some.)

A DRINK FROM THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

EDITOR'S NOTE. These vivid recollections of college fun and friendships by Alice Bird Babb are reprinted from THE P. E. O. RECORD, December, 1923, being a paper which she sent to be read at that year's convention, which she was unable to attend.

By Alice Bird Babb, Founder

I WILL MAKE USE of Edward Everett Hale's oft repeated quotation from his story, "My Double," and say that "so much has been said" in regard to the founding of P. E. O. that I shall not deviate from the beaten track, and record a few incidents of "the days of long ago, when you were Bill and I was Jo."

We seven girls were not only together in '69, but during the college years and during select school years, and the first public school years, even farther back than the "Wide Awake" procession of '69. We attended college in a Methodist school at a time when even flowers were scarcely worn on bonnets, when the word "dance" was uttered in a whisper and cards were inhabitants of barns. In 1868 it was predicted that on a certain night in February the stars would fall, just as they had fallen fifty years before and when our young mothers were allowed to stay up all night and stir the apple butter in the great iron kettle in the open.

I have heard my mother say, that every minute she was afraid the stars would fall into the apple butter and spoil it. But bless you, those lovely stars disdained the apple butter more than the apple butter disdained the stars and vanished into pure ether before reaching the earth. Our class, including the seven to be originals, asked Dr. Burns, who taught astronomy, if we could sit up all night and watch for those stars. We told him that for the reputation of the college we should do so. He said we were right and that every one of us could watch from our homes, and report next day what we saw. We told him this was not what we wanted, to stay at home alone, but we wished to come up to the college and be together, and — but we did not have to say this — have a regular old time of it. After awhile, to git rid of us, he reluctantly consented. So, as Harry Launder would say, "At ha' past tin by the clock," we met in Ruthean Hall.

The boys first made a rousing fire in the stove with wood at $2 a cord; then we ate a substantial lunch which we girls had prepared; then Dillon Payne, the immaculate, husband of one of our P. E. O.'s today, suggested that we sing "Weevilly Wheat." Of course he did not dare suggest that we dance; that would be wicked, but in those days when one sang "Weevilly Wheat" we just had to dance the Virginia Reel; no difference whether we could dance or not. We could not sing "Weevilly Wheat" without dancing the reel, and we sang the old dance tune so long, and saw so many stars in each other's eyes, that to this day, not one of us knows whether the stars fell from the heaven or not.

The next day in astronomy class, Dr. Burns sat at his table with his hand over his mouth; he was a handsome man and when he held his hand over his mouth there was lurking under it a smile; he asked for our report. Hattie Briggs told of the blear-eyed Arcturus, how much crosser than usual his cross eyes looked; Franc Roads was certain that "the dipper" leaned too much on one side, (in these days she would say that it did not believe in the 18th amendment); Mary Allen was certain there were but six stars that night in the Pleiades, and so we all reported. Dr. Burns still sat with his hand over his mouth. He lived in what we called the old academy, and I was as certain that day as I am more certain today, that he knew the whole story, that he was listening to the trip of "Weevilly Wheat" and saw the star of hope and happiness, shining above us youngsters. And, as the light of "life's late afternoon" floods again the western horizon, I hear Dillon leading us, clapping us on. Again I am spinning around with the dear ones of '69.

"Youth is the time for love and hope."

The songs we seven girls sang in '66 and '67 were war songs, while the southern camp fires were dying and the smoke from the cannons were fading; not optimistic songs as in the World War. Now we sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "Smile, Smile, Smile;" then we sang "The Vacant Chair" and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp." Following the war songs came, "No One to Love," "Meet Me By Moonlight Alone," "Her Bright Smile Haunts Me Still," and the beautiful hymn, "The Years Creep Slowly By, Lorena."

Hattie Briggs, Allie Coffin and Ella Stewart were sweet singers. Many a time they serenaded me, waking me up to the strains of "Dream Sweetly, Love." Then I would turn over and go to sleep from the echoes of "In the Starlight." Dear girls! How long since they passed "In the Starlight."

Some of our best singing was done at the students' prayer-meeting. Somehow it was quite the thing to attend prayer meeting, and I think the great attraction was the singing. Men sang then whose voices had grown reliant and strong around camp fires and in prisons. I can hear Dillon's fine tenor rising high and clear in that "There's a wideness in God's mercy/Like the wideness of the sea."

I know, my dear sisters, you have many important questions to settle, or at least to discuss, during the three days of this convention. I take it for granted that you all know how much I would love to be with you, but for some inscrutable reason I am denied the communion of friends I have always so enjoyed. In the meantime, I send you some jottings from the past, a drink from "the old oaken bucket" and, as I raise the cup aloft, dear sisters, "Love takes up the harp of life,/ And smites with all his might."

☆ IN EVERY organization and society there are to be found people who seem to be too busy in finding fault to have any time left to devote to actual work. They are the people who can get into the way of others. They can hinder every good work, defeat every good effort. They predict failure, and then exert themselves to secure the fulfillment of their own prophecies. Every society is composed of two classes - workers and grumblers. The workers never grumble and the grumblers never work.

☆ O, THE PETTY, miserable meannesses of some of us who are made a little lower than the angels! What a shame it is that we cannot rise above it all and be charitable, big-hearted and kindly dispositioned one toward another. I know one woman, who, when any evil report is brought to her, says emphatically: "I do not believe it." By her frankness and indignation over such gossip she does much to kill it altogether. She never tells anything bad about anybody, and will not allow others to trouble her with such things. ☆ IF A GENTLEMAN asks to be presented to a lady she should signify her assent in a pleasant way, and pay her hostess, through whom the request comes, the compliment of seeming at least to be gratified at the introduction. So advises Mrs. Sherwood, who thinks our American ladies sometimes a little lacking in cordiality, often receiving a new acquaintance with that part of their conformation known as the "cold shoulder." A brusque discourtesy is bad; a very effusive courtesy and a too low bow are worse, and an overwhelming and patronizing manner is atrocious. - From "News from N," Ottumwa.

A man or woman who has no enemies is seldom good for anything. They are made of that kind of material that is so easily worked that every one has a hand in it. A sterling character is one who thinks for himself and is not afraid to speak what he thinks, and such an one is always sure to have enemies. A celebrated character, who was surrounded by enemies, used to remark: "There are sparks which if you do not blow out will go out of themselves." Live down your prejudices. Let this be your feeling while endeavoring to live down the unkind remarks of those who are bitter against you. If you stop to dispute, you but do as they desire, and open the way for more abuse. Let them talk. There will be a reaction if you but do your duty, and those who were once alienated from you will gather to you and acknowledge their error. — By Louise (pen name used by one of the founders).

She must cast off her slavery to the fashion plate and go back to the freedom and grace of the Old Greeks' ideas, and find in deep-bosomed Junos, and the stately and well-poised Venuses of Antiquity, with their loose girdles and flowing lines of drapery, her models in dress. — *I., M., Syracuse, N. WE'VE COME A LONG, LONG WAY. For many moons, the social firmament has not blazed with a P. E. O. star. Quietly and unostentatiously the members of this potent factor in the world of society have "pursued the even tenor of their way," indulging in no pomp and ceremony. Last evening a change came o'er their thoughts, and, assembling at 313 Iowa Avenue, they were royally entertained. . . . from 8:30 to 11:30 the guests made merry with games and chat. A feature of the evening's pleasure was the modeling contest. Each guest was given a piece of gum and a card, upon which latter was written an animal's name. The chewer was then requested to mould the "chewee" into the shape of that animal. The most successful artists were given prizes. Tempting refreshments were served, each guest being presented with a bunch of pretty jessamines at the table. — September, 1894; reprinted from the Iowa City Republican, August 14, 1894.

IS IT LIBEL? Poor unhappy Editor Book of The Ladies' Home Journal! He actually seems to think a woman can't have a vote, and a baby, too. Seems as if the Hollandise gentleman thinks a woman would desert her blessed home life altogether and stand in a polling booth all the time if she ever got into one. So he writes and he writes, and women just act as if they don't care. — May, 1912.

THE NAME'S THE THING. Those who attended the Missouri P. E. O. convention some three or four years since may remember little Pauline Erminie Owen, the baby girl whose initials are so significant. Her mother is now one of the state officers, and P. E. O. is a bonny bit girlie indeed. — October, 1900. And in the December issue, 1902: "The chapter at Williamsburg, Iowa, now has a mascot baby, the daughter of Mrs. Lenker, and named by the chapter, Marguerite."

POLITICAL NOTES, 1900: Don't get excited about election matters dear woman. Remember you can't vote. You know you are all the same as the ward politician. You have "influence." (and also) Political cartoons are all right if they are right. But there ought to be a stop to publishing cartoons with deformity in every line. Painful sights are common enough without them. As it is, their coarseness argues against their cause. Their hideous impression overcomes their argument — which is often lacking anyway.

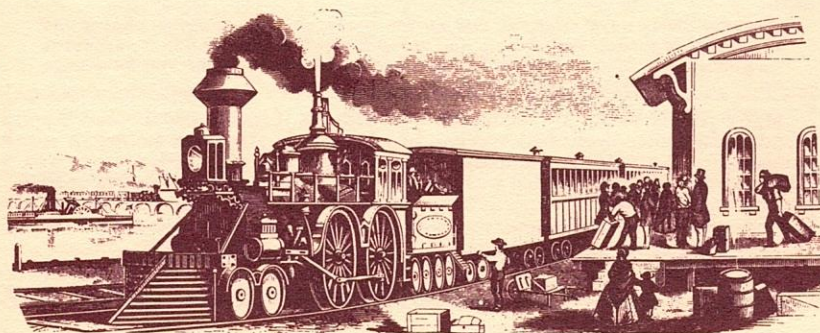

BUSY, BUT NO BALLOT. That my letter is late due to procrastination, we admit, but will not the hustle, bustle, hurry and worry of the past two months, in a measure, excuse it? But now that the campaign is over and McKinley safely elected, we may devote our whole time and attention to P. E. O. matters. A pre-election meeting was a highlight climaxed when after the regular meeting and program the hostess, Mrs. A. P. Spencer, and program committee invited the chapter to partake of a banquet spread in the library, the tables forming the letter X and beautifully decorated in yellow and white. The dainty little menu contained the following:

P. E. O. Salad
Bovine Extract Chilled
Gateau
Spencerian Berry Decoction
Tutti Frutti*

Benjamin Harrison was elected the following month."].*

TO ALL B. I. L.'S

The B. I. L.'s of Iowa welcome you to the centennial celebration. We are planning some exciting things for you to do and interesting things and places for you to see.

Hospitality Headquarters will be in the Drake Ballroom at the Fort Des Moines Hotel — the convention headquarters. — Marion E. Wallace, Chairman, B. I. L. Committee; 3781 River Oaks Drive, Des Moines, Iowa 50312

POST CONVENTION TOUR

A post convention tour is planned. Please refer to the Centennial Sentinel in this issue for details.

SUGGESTION TO VISITORS

THE CENTENNIAL CONVENTION in Des Moines will attract many P. E. O. visitors, particularly from states surrounding Iowa. Much as we would like to have visitors attend the entire convention, the housing facilities in Des Moines are limited. Some inquiry has been received from chapters about chartering a bus and attending the convention for one day, returning home the same evening, which is an excellent plan.

The program on Tuesday will probably best serve such one-day visitors, with a full day of business sessions adjourning about 4:30 p.m. Luncheon tickets may be reserved as announced in Bulletin No. 2. At 8:15 p.m. there will be a special Centennial program.

Chapters within driving distance for such a plan are urged not to request visitor housing in Des Moines.

ETHEL O. GARDNER

President, Supreme Chapter

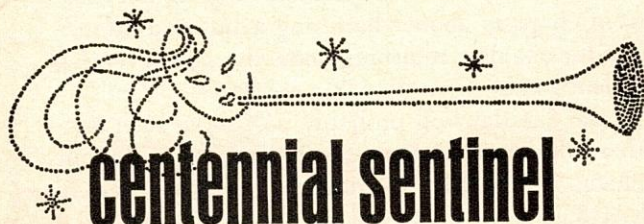

SECOND BREAK-IN AT EXECUTIVE OFFICE

A Des Moines police investigator is shown in the office of the treasurer of Supreme Chapter on March 26, the morning after a break-in at the P. E. O. Executive Office. Entrance was gained by forcing a window and five storage safes were battered open and ransacked. Since the safes are used only for fire protection for office records of value to none but the organization itself, the thieves netted but a trifling amount of petty cash. However, there was considerable damage, the scene above being duplicated in the other areas involved. This was the second break-in at the executive office. In the previous forced entrance the vault in the office of the executive secretary was broken into, and there, too, the intruders found nothing of monetary value. In this latest intrusion, the executive secretary's office was not entered, but all other offices containing safes were. It is hoped that by now any parties concerned will know that in the office headquarters of P. E. O. there will be little return for a hard night's work.

NOTICE: LOCAL CHAPTER PRESIDENTS

As announced in the April issue of THE P. E. O. RECORD, June 1, 1969, is the deadline for biographical material on "P. E. O.'s of Distinction." Check that issue for further details and respect the deadline in submitting material on members of your chapter who have achieved distinction in their chosen field of endeavor. — Stella M. Clapp, Historian; 1016 Claflin Road, Manhattan, Kansas 66502

TO HELEN KELLER

"That living word awakened my soul."

Thus,

Helen Keller,

you described the revelation,

when the cool well water

gushed over your small hand

as "Teacher" spelled into your other hand

"w-a-t-e-r."

And you knew it was a word!

"The mystery of language was revealed to me."

We read your words anew —

and wonder of the greatest revelation now attained . . .

What of the Living Water?

The Living Word?

What of the mystery of Eternity?

P.E.O. Personals

Bernice Tillett, Nebraska

BERNICE KRIDELBAUGH TILLET, AH, Alliance, Nebraska, past president of Nebraska State Chapter and collector and custodian of the state's valuable P. E. O. articles of historic interest, has lived all her life in intimate association with the ideals and traditions of P. E. O. Had Bernice not been the daughter of a P. E. O. mother the pattern of her life's interest might have been altogether different. She first learned to respect, then to love, P. E. O. from her mother.

Although Mrs. Kridelbaugh was the first initiate of Chapter H, Holdrege, Nebraska, in 1890, circumstances prevented her from participating in her chapter there. The family moved to Edgemont, South Dakota, and then to Alliance, Nebraska, a typical western town in 1900. As so many have done, Mrs. Kridelbaugh carried the star and its ideals with her. In the spring of 1903 she was granted permission to draw up a charter list, and that summer, on July 1, Chapter AH, Alliance, Nebraska, was organized with ten charter members. Bernice Kridelbaugh Tillett was one of the ten, the only daughter in the group. Bernice has continued her membership in the chapter.

Bernice served in all the local chapter offices; in 1927 she was elected state organizer, and served for two years. During this period an awareness of the many individual interpretations of P. E. O. ritual came to her. There were no binding forms in the early days. Bernice's natural love for tradition led her to realize that a knowledge of our heritage was important for the future of P. E. O.

In 1931 Bernice became president of Nebraska State Chapter. One of her first acts was to appoint a new state committee, the History Committee. Mrs. Helen Drake of Beatrice, Nebraska, a past president of Supreme Chapter, was chairman.

Also serving were Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, also a past president of Supreme Chapter, and Miss Rose Owens, treasurer of Supreme Chapter for many years. Through the work of this committee Nebraska P. E. O.'s became increasingly aware of their heritage. After serving her term as president and completing five years on the state board, Bernice herself became a member of the History Committee.

In 1942 it was apparent that a division of labor was necessary. Bernice Tillett was appointed Custodian of Historical Articles, and Bertha Clark Hughes was named to write the history of P. E. O. in Nebraska.

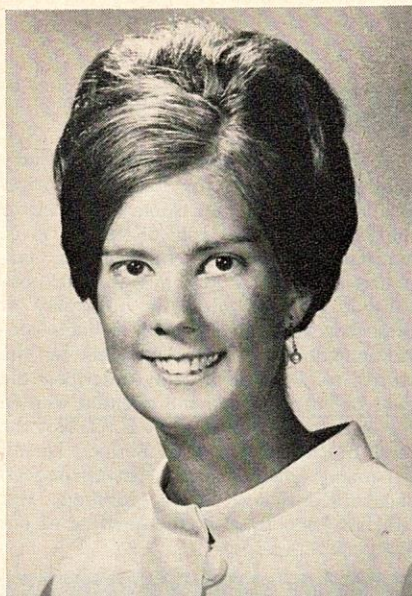

Years have passed. Chapters and individuals have given or loaned historical articles to Mrs. Tillett, some described in the January, 1969, issue of THE P. E. O. RECORD. Today the collection is unequalled anywhere. Each Nebraska convention is highlighted by a display of these treasures of the past; at each convention P. E. O.'s are inspired by the words of Bernice as she describes the days of long ago and the talented women devoted to the ideals of P. E. O. Not the least of these women is Bernice herself — ninety years young, silver-tongued speaker, preserver of our heritage. Her life has been lived in the shadow of our star.

Linda Jean Leamer, Nebraska

LINDA JEAN LEAMER, DE, SOUTH Sioux City, Nebraska, was chosen countess for the Ak-Sar-Ben Coronation and Ball in Omaha. Linda is a senior at the University of Nebraska where she is majoring in zoology and psychology. She is a member of Alpha Phi, Alpha Lambda Delta, the Cornhusker staff, People to People program, and is an assistant editor of the All-Sorority Rush Book. Linda plans to work in England after graduation, and will travel extensively in Europe.

Linda is a third-generation member of Chapter DE. Her grandmother, the late Besse Leamer, was a charter member of Chapter DE, and her mother, Jean Leamer, is an active member of the same chapter.

RUTH WOOLSON LANING, JV, INDIANOLA, IOWA, is a great, great niece of Founder Alice Bird Babb, her father, George D. Woolson, being a great nephew of Mrs. Babb. Ruth was born and raised in Clarinda, Iowa, and was graduated from high school there in 1949 with honors. She attended Clarinda Junior College one year, then entered Simpson College, Indianola, where she was associated with Delta Delta Delta sorority and was active on campus, serving as treasurer of her senior class. Following graduation she taught for a time in the Altoona, Iowa, high school.

In 1954 Ruth was married to Everett L. Laning, a student of Garrett Theological Seminary, Evanston. After his graduation they went to Iceland for eight weeks and worked with an interdenominational group from Europe and the United States to help build a wing of a Lutheran Church.

Upon returning to the States, Mr. Laning continued his education, receiving his master's degree at Evanston and his doctorate at Iowa State University, Ames. In this period he served as pastor of several nearby communities and Ruth worked in several clerical positions and as a substitute teacher. Dr. Laning became a member of the faculty of Simpson College and the family has since lived in Indianola. There are three children.

Ruth has had a longstanding interest in Camp Fire work, attending camp near Boone, Iowa, at an early age and continuing there as a summer counselor. At present she serves as Camp Fire Guardian for a group in Indianola and works with the local organization. She is a substitute teacher for Indianola High School, serves on the committee which maintains a nursery for working mothers, and is active in the Delta Delta Delta Alliance.

ELOISE BARKSDALE, F, FORT SMITH, Arkansas was named 1968 Poet of the Present by Rosa Zagnoni Marinoni, poet laureate of Arkansas, at the annual Arkansas Poetry Day, October, 1968. It is one of several citations of merit awarded on Poetry Day "to remember the poets of the past, to recognize the poets of the present, and to encourage the poets of the future."

Eloise is president and co-founder (in 1962 with May Gray, J, Fort Smith) of the Roundtable Poets of Fort Smith. She received the Brochure Award of the Poets' Roundtable of Arkansas on Poetry Day, 1967. This prize, equivalent to $100, contributed to publication of Eloise's first book, Remembering Is Music.

In the summer of 1967 when the city of Fort Smith celebrated its sesquicentennial, Eloise and the Roundtable Poets of which she was president sponsored an all-school poetry contest; Eloise always has been interested in the young people of the city and in encouraging them. Bill Speer, high school senior and winner of the 1968 Arkansas Poet of the Future Award, dedicated his book, The Proud Summer, to her.

Eloise was born in Dardanelle, Arkansas, and attended Central College at Conway and the University of Arkansas where she was a Chi Omega. She majored in piano and public school music and has been a substitute teacher in the Fort Smith school system. Her substituting became a fulltime job for one year at the end of which she received during an awards program a hand-lettered citation from her fifth grade. It read, "This certifies that Mrs. Barksdale is the Best Poetry Teacher in Ballman School."

In 1961 Eloise wrote the lyrics and music for the Arkansas State P. E. O. Song which was officially adopted by the state convention in 1962. Eloise dedicated her song to Elsa Vaught, F, and a past-president of Arkansas State Chapter.

Eloise Barksdale, Arkansas

Irene Marrs, J, and Eloise were co-chairmen of music for the 1968 state convention held in Fort Smith. For this convention they composed a special arrangement for piano and organ of The P. E. O. March, the original version of which was published in The P. E. O. Record, December, 1968.

Numerous magazines including The P. E. O. Record, literary quarterlies, and newspapers have published poems by Eloise. This year, also, she has won awards in two national Haiku contests.

Currently serving as president of both the Roundtable Poets of Fort Smith and the Arkansas Pioneers State Association, Eloise is also active in the Northwest Arkansas Branch of the National League of American Pen Women (where she serves as a vice-president); the Poets Roundtable of Arkansas; Arkansas Authors', Composers', and Artists' Society; and the Poetry Society of Kentucky. She is a past-president of Chapter F, of which she was an initiate in 1935, and is now chapter historian and centennial chairman.

CHAPTER AI, ELSBERRY, MISSOURI, celebrated the 64th anniversary of its organization with a tea at the Christian Church. Helen Ricks, president, presided, and following the welcome she presented corsages to the 50-year plus members: Lillian Sanders, charter member; Elizabeth Trail, Mrs. Clarence Cannon, Mrs. H. H. Palmer, Martha Rose, and Mrs. H. C. Gladney. It was noted that Martha Rose has over 30 years of perfect attendance at meetings.

Lorene Creech played a program of organ selections. "A Sketch of Charter Members" was presented by Elizabeth Trail who also reviewed the first years of the chapter. Anne Palmer presented "Through the Years with Chapter AI," a review of anniversaries, projects, and memorial facts. All members and guests enjoyed the display of yearbooks, photographs and the many mementoes of Chapter AI and P. E. O.

Special recognition was given the ten, twenty, and thirty-year members; the thirty-niners — Mary Jones, Kathryn Reid, and Sara Duncan; the forty-niners — Alberta Taylor and Florence Palmer; and of course the fifty-year-plus members.

JANICE BRUMITT, ED, EDWARDSVILLE, ILLINOIS, is listed in the 1968 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America. Janice became a P. E. O. in 1967 and is active in civic and church affairs. She is the mother of four boys.

HATTIE ENGLEMAN, AK, TORRINGTON, WYOMING, a past president of Nebraska State Chapter, died on November 21, 1968. She was initiated into Chapter AX, Crawford, Nebraska, on November 11, 1921, and in 1943 became a member of Chapter M, Torrington, and was a charter member of AK, organized in February, 1966. She served this last chapter as vice president and president, continuing throughout the years to always serve as needed.

An interesting sidelight in her P. E. O. career was the circumstance of the convention that elected her to the executive board of Nebraska State Chapter in 1932. Helen's chapter — AX, Crawford — was to be host to that convention in Crawford. All the money had been raised, and plans were well in hand. However, in 1931, Crawford's banks closed, and the convention money was gone. Hastings, Nebraska, took over the convention. Hattie attended as a delegate and was elected to the state board as treasurer. She held all offices, presiding at Nebraska's 50th anniversary convention at Norfolk in 1939.

Another of Hattie's favorite reminiscences concerned the year when she was installed as state president at Chadron with most of her chapter in the cheering session. She entertained several members of the executive board in her home at Crawford. This was the depression era and her friends pitched in to make the party a success. Amusing situations developed, and Hattie always loved to recount this story and laugh over it. Her kindly spirit and pleasing personality endeared her to all throughout the years.

Oh, how skillful grows the hand
That obeyeth love's command;
It is the heart, and not the brain
That to the highest doth attain,
And he who follows love's behest
Far exceedeth all the rest.

CONCERNING PICTURES AND PERSONALS

Chapters are urged to send items for P. E. O. Personals that will be of general interest to the membership. Items are not acknowledged and are used as space permits. Articles should be typewritten, double-spaced. A minimum of two months must be allowed for publication, but much longer may be needed. There is no charge unless a picture is used. If a picture is used, a chapter is billed for the cost of printing it after it has appeared in the magazine. Cost will range from $7.50 for the small pictures, upward to about $12. Pictures submitted must be black-and-white prints with sharp detail and professional size. The photograph, identification of the people in the photograph, and any accompanying story should be sent in the same enclosure. As a general policy pictures and stories of the following are not used because of space limitations: Chapter anniversaries of less than 50 years; third-generation initiates; Founders' Day events unless an unusual idea is presented. 50-year members will be listed in the Honor Roll with a small picture if desired. It is not possible to use a separate story about each member and the honoring event. Send the following information for the Honor Roll: Last name, given name, husband's initials; letters of initiating chapter, year of initiation; letters of present chapter, location of present chapter. Do not send snapshots, negatives, color pictures, engravings.
