The BIG Picture of P.E.O.

Have you seen it?
Have you felt it?

How many times have you heard someone talk about the “big picture of P.E.O.”? This phrase is typically associated with the impact we have on women’s education around the world. Another significant aspect of our “big picture” is the lasting friendships we gain with members, their families and friends whom we may never have met if we hadn’t participated in a P.E.O. activity outside of our local chapter.

My life has personally been enriched beyond measure because of my involvement at all levels of our organization—through participation in local, state and International chapter activities. For that, I am so grateful. These experiences have shown me that, while my chapter is very active in our support of all six P.E.O. philanthropic projects and while the times shared with members in my own local chapter are rich and rewarding, P.E.O.’s overall influence is so much greater than what one individual chapter is able to achieve.

When I consider the “big picture,” it becomes more apparent that P.E.O. is able to assist so many women around the world because each of our nearly 6,000 chapters are contributing to our International Chapter projects. Without that aggregate support from all of our chapters, P.E.O. wouldn’t be able to offer as much financial assistance as we provide today. How many organizations can say they’ve provided over $260 million in financial assistance to more than 95,000 women around the world AND they own a women’s college? Only one—P.E.O.!

We all know how exciting it is when the women we recommend for our financial support are approved. It’s an exhilarating feeling! Seeing the “big picture” helps me realize that, even when one of our chapter’s candidates for a project is not chosen or does not receive the full amount recommended, our efforts are still making a difference because WE are part of the BIG PICTURE. We still have something to be excited about because WE contributed to the assistance provided to other women we haven’t met so they may achieve their educational pursuits. This “giving” attitude represents what I’ve seen in every P.E.O. I’ve met—that we’re women who enjoy giving more than receiving.

Those attending the 72nd Convention of International Chapter in Indianapolis will have a chance to hear directly from five recipients and a Cottey student about how P.E.O. has impacted their lives. If you’re not able to be with us in Indianapolis, you will have the opportunity to listen to their comments through the live stream of our Projects Program on Opening Night. We are excited to take this program into your homes so you can experience the “big picture of P.E.O.” that evening!

Whether you “view” our Projects Program in Indianapolis or at a chapter gathering, I hope you will experience the other aspect of our “big picture”—that of gaining new friendships through P.E.O. On a personal note, after 22 years, I’m still enjoying a valuable friendship with a member from California whom I met at Convention of International Chapter in Atlanta. Our paths would never have crossed if we hadn’t experienced the “big picture of P.E.O.”!

As I write my last President’s Message, I want to thank all of you for giving me the honor to serve as your president this biennium. I’d also like to thank you for engaging in my Power of 1 challenge. Your 1’s have been amazing and inspiring!

So, I have one final suggestion. Could your Power of 1 be to experience the “big picture of P.E.O.” through continued support of our projects and by participating in P.E.O. activities outside your local chapter? I’m certain it will be rewarding!

Do you know what your “1” is?

Maria T. Baseggio,
President, International Chapter

P.E.O. Named Community Quarterback

The sisters of Chapter HD, The Woodlands, Texas, are so proud of our sister Marion Fischer. Marion was recently honored by the Houston Texans for her outstanding contributions to the community through her volunteer work at the Montgomery County Women's Center (MCWC). Marion was the Grand Prize Winner of the Houston Texans Community Quarterback Award and received $50,000 for MCWC.

Marion Fischer receives her award from Houston Texan Duane Brown

Marion has been an advocate in the field of domestic violence for more than 30 years and has impacted the lives of thousands of survivors and their children. Since she began volunteering with the MCWC 12 years ago, she has helped to raise more than $6 million. Currently she is the chairman of the board of directors.

Marion was initiated into P.E.O. in 2005. She has found that her passion for supporting women and volunteering at MCWC meshes perfectly with the mission of P.E.O. and the world of Chapter HD. One of Marion's goals is to find a future recipient of a P.E.O. project among the many wonderful but unfortunate women that she meets through her work at MCWC.

The Power of Sisterhood

I was thrilled to read the article about Kim Tait in the current P.E.O. Record. After my mother, Norah Wallace, a 60-year member of Chapter AA, Victoria, passed away in 2003, I made a donation to the Scholar Award program for a named award. Of course, I was advised the name of the winner and her background when the award was announced in 2005. Imagine my surprise to find the award mentioned in the current article, 10 years later, with a report on Kim's fascinating career since receiving this award.

I am so grateful to the Scholar Award committee who designated Kim as the recipient and to Chapter BB, Tucson, for sponsoring and nurturing Kim.

My mother would be delighted! Sisterhood is indeed powerful!

Chapter Celebrates a Sister's "Power of 1"

Chapter TM in Woodland, California, has a good vibe. It's a willing group of ladies all doing their part to keep the chapter active and vital.

One among us stands out. Catherine Overhouse has gone way beyond an average contributing member. She has single-handedly invented ways to earn money for our chapter. Catherine is a whirlwind of ideas which have enriched our chapter financially and lifted our spirits as we watch her unselfishly and joyously attend meetings with another new idea.

Catherine never asks for a thank you, she knows we appreciate her efforts. But, to let her know just how much we appreciate her, our chapter recently honored her with the presentation of a large stone engraved with the name of her country home "Clos Cavanis." Chapter TM hopes to show our love and appreciation to Catherine so other chapters might know of her good works and realize that one person can truly make a difference.

Samantha Zumwalt, TM, Woodland, California

A New Chapter's First Initiation

Just after we organized a new chapter, CQ, Canandaigua, New York, a new member called me and said, "Someone called me and wants to be a P.E.O. I don't know what to say. Help!"

Even though we had discussed this possibility at our preliminary meetings, as president of the new chapter for just a few months, I was not expecting this question so soon.

I offered to return the call and discovered that a California P.E.O., Rachel Hayman, HD, Santa Barbara, had seen our organization picture in The Record and called her mother, a Canandaigua resident, to tell her there was now a chapter in her town. Barbara Bayley, Rachel's mom, picked a name to contact at random from The Record article.

After phone calls, emails and visits, we initiated Barbara as our first new member, just months after we were a chapter ourselves. We couldn't be more delighted and it was a joyful time to see brand-new members practicing the ceremony and doing it beautifully—recalling their own experiences. Our new sister is already one of us and will be working with us as we grow and mature as a chapter.

It's a great beginning to this new chapter. We are grateful for The Record and those who read it!

Luella Krahl, CQ, Canandaigua, New York

A Tale of Two BILs

by Albert Leffler, Guest Editor, The P.E.O. Record

Following are two examples of BILs' devotion to their wives and their support of P.E.O. There is also the unusual illustration of the importance of P.E.O.s sharing their final wishes with their BILs and other loved ones.

Jimmy Ketcham wrote to me:

"I enjoy being a BIL so much I've done it twice! Yes, I guess you could say I'm in my second term as the husband of a P.E.O. My late wife, Sandy, was a charter member of Chapter V, Ozark, Alabama. Due to poor health she missed many meetings but remained active from 1983 until her death in 2001. I was a witness to the loving and caring acts of kindness by P.E.O. sisters during her illness.

"In 2002 God blessed me with my second wife, Beverly. At that time she had never heard of P.E.O. In 2004 Beverly was initiated into Chapter V. Since then she has held several offices and rarely misses a meeting. Beverly cherishes her sisters and they have been so gracious to me.

"Beverly and I enjoy traveling and have stayed at 13 P.E.O. Bed & Breakfasts around the country. In the beginning I wasn't too sure about staying in a stranger's home, but after the first one I was sold. These weren't strangers; they were sisters and fellow BILs. Every visit has been such a great experience and we have met many new friends. I highly recommend it!

"As a Vietnam veteran I have a special bond with my 'brothers' who I see at a yearly reunion. I get the impression that P.E.O. sisters share a unique relationship as well. I'm very proud to have a 33-year connection with such a wonderful organization that is doing great things by and for women."

Bob Hathaway

Bob and Patricia Hathaway of Chapter FT, Conroe, Texas, were married for 60 years and one of the final "yes dear" obligations as a BIL was for Bob to personally honor Pat's wish that her emblem be returned to the Sisterhood.

That wish eventually worked into a road trip from Conroe to Minnesota and Wisconsin with a stop at the P.E.O. Executive Office in Des Moines. Margarita Corral, a longtime friend of both Pat and Bob, signed on as a second driver and enthusiastic tourist traveling to places she had never visited. The P.E.O. Executive Office staff were delighted with their visit and touched by Bob's act of personally returning Pat's emblem.

Bob, as with so many BILs, was almost always surrounded by P.E.O.s including his mother, mother-in-law, aunts and his daughter Anne Bush, also of Chapter FT. Bob remembers first being kicked out of the house for a P.E.O. meeting by his mother when he was 9 years old.

P.E.O. has been an important part of Bob's life, from first visiting Cottey College in 1951 to helping his wife with her recording secretary duties when she wasn't able to write but would dictate and he would transcribe. Bob laughed that the words he most often transcribed were "in due form."

After the stop in Des Moines to return Pat's emblem, Bob and Margarita continued their trip visiting the Mesabi Iron Range in Minnesota and the small town of Chetek in northwestern Wisconsin. It is in Chetek that Pat has her final resting place in the family plot. Bob reverently placed the receipt of the returned emblem as a token of his devotion to Pat and acknowledgment of the importance of P.E.O. in their lives together. 🌸

Our P.E.O. Trip of a Lifetime

by Jeanne Herder, EM, Stevens Point, Wisconsin

One of Chapter EM President Kathy Mancl's goals for the 2015-2016 year is to promote Cottey College, including recognizing potential candidates from Wisconsin for admission.

I thought it would be good for her to go to Nevada, Missouri, to see Cottey College for herself and volunteered to make the trip with her. I also thought, while we were traveling, we should stop to tour P.E.O. Headquarters in Des Moines, Iowa, and see the founding place of P.E.O. at Iowa Wesleyan College in Mount Pleasant, Iowa. It also occurred to me the experience of staying at three different P.E.O. B&Bs along the way would be icing on the cake!

Jeanne Herder and Kathy Mancl at P.E.O. Hall on the Iowa Wesleyan campus

Kathy and I left from Stevens Point, Wisconsin, on June 9 to travel to Cottey College. In Nevada, we spent the night at the home of Monica, Chapter ND, and had a wonderful tour of Cottey College the next morning given by a graduating Cottey student. We saw the new Fine Arts building given by the "Defining Moment Campaign" and many other interesting buildings and people. We also picked up some valuable information to take back to prospective students in Wisconsin and spoke with Cottey's admissions director Judy Steege.

Kathy and Jeanne visited the chapel at Cottey College

On June 10, after our tour of Cottey, we drove four hours to Des Moines where we stayed at another wonderful P.E.O. B&B. Sarah, Chapter LA, West Des Moines, was a delightful hostess. The next morning, after a wonderful sleep and breakfast, we had a tour of the P.E.O. Executive Office given by Millie Knee. She showed us the supply department, Record department, and all the projects offices and the beautifully preserved pieces of P.E.O. memorabilia all around the 55,000 square foot building. Every single person we met working there greeted us with a smile.

After our tour of the P.E.O. headquarters, we drove two hours to Mount Pleasant where we stayed at the home of Joyce Dennison, Chapter NZ. As part of their P.E.O. B&B program, Chapter NZ also offers to serve dinner for an additional fee, as a fundraiser for the P.E.O. projects. We decided to go for the dinner as well and Joyce and another Chapter NZ sister, Janet, joined us; the four of us had a lovely evening together.

The next morning, Carol, a sister in Chapter Original A, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, gave us a tour of Iowa Wesleyan College and the P.E.O. rooms on campus.

The P.E.O. Room in Mount Pleasant, Iowa

We learned so much on our road trip and talked about P.E.O. and our fun three-day, jam-packed adventure all the way home. We are giving a program to our chapter about our whirlwind P.E.O. trip of a lifetime, including photos, hoping that other sisters will consider this experience. I am so proud to be a P.E.O., to meet all these wonderful sisters and learn more about our sisterhood! 🌸

P.E.O. Bed and Breakfast—Great Expectations

by Holly Kerfoot, AF, Ontario, Oregon

Helene Nelson and Holly Kerfoot met through the P.E.O. B&B program and became lifelong friends

Just what can you expect when you stay at a P.E.O. Bed and Breakfast? Over 15 years ago I asked myself that question and the answers that came continue to touch my life to this day. I had been a P.E.O. for a number of years before our family made the decision to move to South Dakota from Idaho for my husband to pursue a graduate degree in anesthesia. We had two children, a son who would be a 5th grader and a daughter who would be starting her school days in kindergarten. This was a big move for our family far away from family and friends. In addition, in order to make ends meet I would be going to work full time as my husband was in school full time. This would mean child care for the kids and a tight budget to manage our living expenses and school expenses too.

The position I took started three months before my husband needed to be at school so I headed to South Dakota on my own and needed a place to stay for the summer. I had stayed in P.E.O. B&Bs before and was hoping to establish a base for a few days so I could then find longer-term lodging. After a long flight and a very stressful first day on the job I showed up on Helene Nelson's doorstep. Helene, Chapter BS, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, warmly welcomed me as a sister and friend.

From the moment I settled in with her and shared our P.E.O. connections I felt at home, comforted and calmed by our visit and soothed by her lovely home. The one week stay became two and then the generous offer came to stay the rest of the summer! What a gift, and the added bonus of supporting our projects through P.E.O. Bed and Breakfast.

As the days continued to be stressful on the job, plus dealing with the family back home and the upcoming move, I always knew I was coming home to a place of refuge. As the summer drew to a close I was able to secure a duplex for our family only two blocks from Helene's! Our connection continued as I attended her chapter meetings and shared many cups of coffee discussing the happenings in both our lives.

We survived the two years in Sioux Falls and made our move back to Idaho. Over the years I have been back to Sioux Falls to visit Helene. I kiddingly say she is the one thing I would come back for! It was a tough couple of years that she, and P.E.O., made so much better.

My stay at Helene's P.E.O. Bed and Breakfast started a very special friendship that has lasted over the years. It also came with a challenge. My husband and I built a new home four years ago and after many conversations with Helene, sometimes gently nudging and other times very persuasive, I know the time will soon be here for me to start my own P.E.O. B&B. I can hardly wait and know Helene will be my biggest fan and support for this new adventure. As far as my expectations go, I hope to bring to my guests all that Helene gave to me as hostess, friend and most of all—loving sister! 🌸

What I've Learned from Our B&B Guests & Hosts

by Sandy Paige, AM, Saint George, Utah

My husband and I have been both B&B hosts and guests, and every encounter has been a pleasure and an opportunity to learn. Through our B&B experiences, we have taken note of how to be better guests and hosts.

Saint George in southern Utah is a popular destination, and Chapter AM has a very active P.E.O. B&B program. Last year we provided 18 B&B stays, supporting P.E.O. projects, and this year we will have even more. Our B&B coordinator for Chapter AM thoughtfully provided each of our six hosts with a binder and registration sheets for guests to give basic personal and travel information. Most of our hosts also take a photo of guests and as a result we have a lovely history of stays.

What we have learned from our B&B guests:

- Plan ahead. Inquire with the chapter contact as early as possible.
- Let your host know the anticipated time of arrival and desired departure time. It is also helpful to the host to know your travel route and travel plans so that she can check on possible traffic tie-ups that might delay your arrival—and tell you about unexpected detours.

- Reconfirm a few days before the visit and ask about the best means of communicating with your host if you are unexpectedly delayed.
- Remember your membership card.
- Provide your travel partner's name.
- Mention food allergies or special needs, e.g., decaffeinated coffee, gluten-free diet.

Every guest we have had has sent a nice follow-up note and some have shared a token of their appreciation. Our guests have come with bean soup mix from Idaho, maple syrup from Wisconsin, huckleberry jam from Montana, a beautiful gift basket from Colorado, guest soaps from Missouri and notecards from Michigan.

What we have learned from our B&B hosts:

- Send detailed directions to the B&B location with landmarks and information about current detours.
- Provide maps and brochures from the community with details about days and times of special sights/events.
- Recommend restaurants with tips about cost, type of food and locations that are reasonably near the B&B. One hostess even had a few restaurant menus for us to peruse.
- Welcome with a smile; we have felt our special bond at every P.E.O. home.

The P.E.O. B&B program is a win-win situation for both guests and hosts, supporting our sisterhood's projects and providing guests and hosts with happy memories.

A Conversation with Our Younger Members

by Debbie Clason, Coordinator of Membership Development

As we look forward to the future of our sisterhood, it's important to ask our members what they believe is necessary to sustain and engage members of all ages. That's exactly what P.E.O. did earlier this year when we invited a focus group of 22 younger members to the table. We wanted their opinions about P.E.O., our future and what interested them in becoming a P.E.O. and staying engaged.

These 22 members, ranging from 26-45 years of age, represented 15 states and Canada. Fifteen had a family connection to P.E.O. when they were initiated. Three were initiated prior to their mothers and played a role in their mothers becoming members. Half of them have sponsored someone for membership.

Here are some key findings from the focus group which you may want to consider as you are in conversation with your own chapter's younger members:

They truly believe in the P.E.O. mission and want to be involved in a vibrant and proactive organization for both philanthropic and social reasons. One participant said "[in P.E.O.,] women of any age can find service, friendship, leadership opportunities and the chance to be a part of something bigger than themselves."

Finding a balance between family, work, P.E.O. and other obligations is very important to these young members. They embrace the importance of the heritage and traditions of P.E.O. at all levels; however, want that to be balanced with meeting the needs and interests of all age groups. "P.E.O. needs to work harder than ever to position the organization as a worthy candidate for a busy woman's energy," another said. "We cannot simply presume the loyalty of daughters or the sentiment of older members."

They see great value in the inter-generational benefits of P.E.O. "The different generations make things more interesting and give us more character," a participant shared. "One of the older sisters has become more of a mentor for me and I've gone to her for support and advice, just because I felt so comfortable with her. Without these different generations, our chapter would be boring."

Whether at the local or state/provincial/district chapter level, serving in leadership roles helps them enjoy feeling connected to the chapter, make a meaningful contribution to P.E.O. and provide for leadership experience and personal growth. "Giving young women a purpose keeps them involved," one participant said,

"because time is too precious to waste on something that you can't see a benefit in."

When asked if P.E.O. is relevant to younger women, almost all answered this question with a resounding "yes"—even though they think we need to become more diverse. "I want my chapter to reflect my local community which has people of all colors, nationalities and ages. I want to see the richness of contemporary urban life and all the ideas and energy that brings to P.E.O."

These younger members believe that preacceptance and postinitiation counseling should continue to be a high priority to engage our new members. This is important even to our new members who already have P.E.O. family members—we cannot assume that they already know everything about chapter life.

We hope this information is helpful as you consider how to grow and strengthen membership in your local chapter. In reality, members of all ages have expressed interest in the key points these younger members mentioned: our mission, leadership, diversity, intergenerational friendships and good preacceptance and postinitiation counseling. Please discuss these key points in your chapter and determine how to enhance the participation of your younger members and encourage them to introduce their friends to P.E.O. While doing so, you'll likely find ways to increase participation of all of your members and your chapter will become even more vibrant. 🌸

Karla Woell

Michigan

P.E.O.: Where Dreams Take Flight

Karla Woell's first contact with P.E.O. was in the 70s when her mother joined a "women's group" that provided funds for women's education and owned a women's college in southwestern Missouri. Twenty-five years later, after her mother had entered Chapter Eternal, Karla was initiated into Chapter FF, Frankfort in 2002 and learned that P.E.O. was really about a sisterhood as well as education. Here she was lovingly mentored by past state president Marilyn Conrad (entered Chapter Eternal, August 2013).

Born in Nigeria to Lutheran missionaries, Karla was home schooled by her mother until seventh grade using the Calvert Correspondence School, Baltimore, Maryland. Returning to the States in 1951, she lived near her grandparents in North Saint Louis. She graduated from Ferguson High School and then Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana, earning a B.S. degree in home economics. She later earned a Master of Education in language arts from Michigan State University while teaching at a small Lutheran high school. Her last position was serving as the office manager/reservations clerk at Camp Arcadia (a Lutheran Family Retreat Center).

Karla married Stan in 1961 and they have lived in Michigan since 1963. They traveled extensively on mission trips to Africa, India and the Philippines with their church in Holt. They have three married sons, ten grandchildren (two are married) and one great granddaughter.

Karla has volunteered at the local Arcadia community center and at Camp Arcadia, as well as participated in choir, altar guild and weekly Bible classes at her current church. She loves walking along Lake Michigan—just a block away, reading and collecting nativity sets of varying media from around the world.

Ann Taylor

Ontario-Quebec
Finding The Love
Within Your Star

Ann Taylor is the youngest of four and only daughter of George and Vernice Taylor.

Her mother was a charter member of Chapter L, Guelph, Ontario, and was Ontario Provincial President in 1986-87. Vernice was the last Ontario Provincial President before they joined with Quebec.

Ann always knew the tight circle of special friends her mother cherished was something she wanted to experience first-hand. She was initiated into her mother's chapter, L, Guelph, Ontario, in 1991. Over the years Ann has been on many committees and local executive of two chapters, helping organize Chapter S, Kitchener, which she transferred into in 2006.

Serving on the provincial board has been especially rewarding and she has made life-long friendships. P.E.O. is very dear to her heart. She feels P.E.O. truly helps women to improve their lives through education and friendship. Ann was happy to give the gift of P.E.O. to her cousin Jane Paterson, AQ, Marietta, Georgia, in April 2014.

She enjoys working and helping people every day either as a podiatric assistant, being a personal support worker, or working at the local arena helping out at the events, especially the Junior A Hockey games.

Judith Caulfield

Tennessee

Someone you know needs P.E.O.!

The Continuing Mission of the P.E.O. Foundation

by Barb Legge, Chairman, P.E.O. Foundation Board of Trustees

In 1961 the P.E.O. Foundation, a nonprofit corporation, was established to encourage tax-deductible giving to the educational and charitable projects of the P.E.O. Sisterhood. Fifty-four years later, that continues to be the mission of the P.E.O. Foundation—to encourage individual P.E.O. sisters, families and friends to support the educational and charitable projects of our sisterhood. All gifts from individuals to the P.E.O. Foundation or any of the six International educational projects are deductible for U.S. and state income, estate and gift tax purposes.

As the end of the year approaches, many of you will be sending your year-end gifts to the philanthropies of your choice. The P.E.O. Foundation encourages all P.E.O.s to remember our International educational projects with your gifts. The continued availability of funds that are awarded by our financial assistance projects—Educational Loan Fund, International Peace Scholarship, Program for Continuing Education, P.E.O. Scholar Awards, STAR Scholarships, Cottey College or the P.E.O. Foundation—depends upon the gifts from our members.

Gifts to the P.E.O. Foundation or gifts used to establish a permanently endowed fund in the P.E.O. Foundation may be made with cash, bequests in wills, marketable securities, beneficiary of living trusts, retirement plan assets or life insurance. For information about naming the P.E.O. Foundation or any of the International educational projects as a beneficiary, contact the P.E.O. Foundation office or visit the P.E.O. International website and click on the P.E.O. Foundation & Planned Giving link.

Sue Amstutz believes supporting a P.E.O. project is important and an ongoing philanthropy. This is her story.

The Importance of an Ongoing Philanthropy

by Sue Amstutz, DC, Tulsa, Oklahoma

As a musician myself, I believe in providing opportunities for young musicians. As a P.E.O., I believe in the superior education for women available at Cottey College. Putting these two beliefs together, I instituted a scholarship in 2003 to provide support for Cottey women interested in fulfilling their musical ambitions. Using the auspices of the P.E.O. Foundation, I established the Accademia Musiquette Fund.

I continually support the Accademia Musiquette Fund by personal, twice-a-year contributions. The P.E.O. Foundation uses the net earnings derived from the ever-growing principal in my account so that we have now provided scholarship assistance to a dozen Cottey women musicians, making it possible for each young woman receiving an Accademia Musiquette Scholarship to become an ever-more productive citizen and leader in the field of music.

Exciting News at ELF!

New $15,000 Loan for Master's Degree Students...and More

by Paula Rueb, Chairman, P.E.O. Educational Loan Fund Board of Trustees

Chapter recommendations for women seeking Educational Loan Fund (ELF) loans have slowly risen over the last few years, but ELF still has money to lend. The Educational Loan Fund Board of Trustees continually evaluates prudent policy changes to keep our oldest philanthropy modern and attractive to women seeking help to fund their educational goals.

Because of this, significant changes in some lending policies will go into effect on October 1, 2015, for all chapter recommendations submitted on or after this date.

■ A new $15,000 loan category for master's degree students.

Forty-three percent of all ELF loans go to women working toward their master's degree. Federal loans charge graduate students high, unsubsidized interest rates and loan origination fees and loan interest begins to accrue immediately. ELF loans have a low 2 percent simple interest rate, no loan origination fees, no penalty for early payback and interest does not begin to accrue until the applicant's stated graduation date. A higher loan amount for master's degrees and friendlier terms will make an ELF loan even more attractive to graduate level borrowers.

■ Longer payback periods for all loan categories. Loans up to $15,000 will have an eight-year payback period; loans greater than $15,000 (doctoral degree loans) will have a 10-year payback period. A lengthened payback period will result in lower monthly payments for all new borrowers.

■ Paid-in-full date to be calculated in years from the stated graduation date.

Previous procedure required that students pay each loan installment in full six years from the date the money was disbursed. The paid-in-full date procedure will now be calculated from the stated graduation date, rather than from the loan disbursement date(s). This simpler means of calculation will save our borrowers money, consolidate the due date of two-installment loans and allow a longer payback period for all loans.

■ Loan repayment grace period lengthened to six months from stated graduation date. Previous policy required loan repayment to commence three months following the graduation date stated on the application. This policy change will allow all borrowers a few more months to get established after college graduation before loan payback begins.

Why are all of these policy adjustments happening now?

The Educational Loan Fund has undergone many important changes in the last 18 months, all made possible when ELF was able to update its computer operating system. The new system has provided flexibility and enabled improved internal operating procedures.

The new system allowed ELF, in May of 2014, to transfer to an all-online submission process for Chapter Recommendation Forms and student applications. On October 1, 2014, the loan interest rate was lowered from 3 percent to 2 percent. In December of 2014, the Loan Recipient Portal became operational. This popular feature allows women with active loans to securely access their account to monitor their loan balance, interest accrual and payment activity. On October 1, 2015, ELF will offer the new loan category and lengthened payback terms.

ELF has modernized to better serve today's women seeking financial help to achieve their educational goals. But a woman cannot apply for our low cost loans unless she is recommended by a chapter. Someone in your chapter knows of a qualified student who would benefit from an ELF loan. Seek her out. She will be grateful that you did. 🌸

The new loan terms are not retroactive to any current loans. The new terms will apply only to new chapter recommendations received on or after October 1, 2015.

A Message from the Cottey President

Why the Liberal Arts? Why Cottey?

by Dr. Jann Weitzel, President, Cottey College

In March 2015, I was introduced to the faculty, staff and students as the 12th President of Cottey College. I began my address to the gathering with this question: "If a young woman were to ask you to give her one good reason why she should attend college, and specifically Cottey College, what would you say?"

So, I ask you, P.E.O. sisters, what is the answer that you would give to a young woman today? Why should she attend college and why should she attend Cottey College? I believe the answer to this young woman, and to all young women, can be summarized in one word...opportunity.

Historian Drew Gilpin Faust stated, “The ability to recognize opportunities and move in new—and sometimes unexpected—directions will benefit you no matter your interests or aspirations. A liberal arts education is designed to equip students for just such flexibility and imagination.”

Thus, a liberal arts education at Cottey College provides young women the flexibility, imagination and opportunity to plan for their futures, for the job market or for graduate school. Further, it offers them opportunities

- to read the words and appreciate the works of the most celebrated thinkers and artists of our world;
- to converse in the classroom with peers and with faculty members who are experts in their fields; to learn and apply the theory of leadership to the practice of leadership;

- to experience the world through study abroad programs, to develop appreciation for cultural differences and to look at issues from new and different viewpoints;
- to question and think for themselves, not simply to believe what they have been told to believe;
- to gain the skills of reasoning that will assist them with life decisions after their formal education is complete;
- to learn to be critical thinkers...problem-solvers;
- to learn to act as members of a team, whether in the classroom, as members of an extracurricular activity or in life;
- to learn to make ethical decisions;
- to conduct research and apply the scientific method; and
- to be strong communicators.

William Butler Yeats, Irish poet and one of the foremost figures in 20th century literature, once stated, “Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire”; I see Cottey College as the match that lights the fire for the young women who desire to expand themselves, their minds and their experiences. Cottey College, as a liberal arts institution, prepares students not only for their first professional position but for every position to follow, for what they learn in the liberal arts classroom is applicable to any and all professional endeavors.

And what is the professional outlook today for the women who choose a liberal arts path? Research has found that liberal arts majors earn more than professional majors at peak earning ages. Additionally, did you know that a third of all Fortune 500 CEOs have liberal arts degrees? Many realize this type of education is vital to the success of their businesses.

Thus, Cottey College is that match that fuels young minds and creates opportunities. I am honored to serve the institution of Cottey College. I will strive to be a strong caretaker of the institution, of her history, her traditions, her present and her future.

From International Peace Scholarship to Nobel Peace Prize

by Linda Spence, Chairman, P.E.O. International Peace Scholarship Board of Trustees

In Monrovia, Liberia, in 1989, Leymah Gbowee was just beginning college, dreaming of becoming a doctor, when conflict erupted. A small group of rebels from neighboring Ivory Coast, led by Charles Taylor, advanced toward Monrovia with a plan to overthrow President Samuel Doe. Violence spread and thousands were displaced.

“You can tell people of the need to struggle, but when the powerless start to see that they really can make a difference, nothing can quench the fire.”

– Leymah Gbowee

Leymah, her mother and sisters escaped from Liberia on a refugee boat to Ghana and lived in a refugee camp among thousands of Liberians. In 1991, Leymah returned to Liberia, married and had four children. Depressed and poor, she left her abusive husband.

Struggling to find herself, Leymah returned to school and began to work as a social worker and trauma counselor in rural communities and with former child soldiers. Violence and destruction continued for 14 years after Taylor became president.

Realizing the overriding need for peace, Leymah spent years organizing and mobilizing women to become involved in the peace process. She became a founding member and Liberian leader of Women In Peacebuilding Network.

Leymah reached out to Christian and Muslim women and, united, they created the Women of Liberia Mass Action for Peace Movement. In 2003 thousands of women came to Monrovia from all over the country, wearing white and bringing signs for peace. They sat peacefully near the capital, day after day for weeks, until Taylor finally agreed to meet with them. Leymah was chosen as their voice to speak to Taylor. The women demanded an end to the fighting, resumption of peace talks between Taylor and the rebels and oversight from an international organization. Taylor agreed, and eventually the rebels also agreed to these terms.

Peace talks were to be held in Ghana so Leymah and others staged a sit in there as well. After weeks of stalled negotiations, Leymah led 200 women into the meeting hall where they locked arms and created a blockade, preventing anyone from leaving until a peace agreement was signed. This changed the course of the peace process, and soon a transitional government was established in Liberia. Taylor resigned and went into exile in Nigeria. Leymah's work contributed significantly to the removal of Taylor and helped pave the way for the election of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf as the first female head of state in Africa.

Leymah received a P.E.O. International Peace Scholarship in 2006-2007 for an M.A. in conflict transformation at Eastern Mennonite University, Harrisonburg, Virginia, completing a 2-year program in nine months. Leymah Gbowee and Ellen Johnson Sirleaf (and one other) shared the Nobel Peace Prize in 2011.

Leymah continues to promote women's leadership in peace building across Africa and globally. She is president of the Gbowee Peace Foundation Africa, which provides education and leadership opportunities to girls, women and youth in West Africa, and has served for many years as Executive Director of the Women in Peace and Security Network Africa. She says, “Leading women to fight for peace was what I was meant to do with my life.”

PROGRAM FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

PCE's "Power of 1": Look How Far our Roots Have Spread!

by Teri S. Aitchison, Chairman, P.E.O. Program for Continuing Education Board of Trustees

Remember that old adage "Every huge apple orchard begins with just one tiny seed"? Such is the case with P.E.O.'s Program for Continuing Education (PCE). Most of us are familiar with where that first seed originated—a resolution from Chapter AK, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. At the 1971 Convention of Supreme Chapter, President Irene Kerr appointed a study committee and from 1971-1973 PCE operated as a pilot program. During the 1973 Convention of Supreme Chapter, held in New Orleans, Louisiana, delegates unanimously approved the adoption of the amendment establishing PCE as the third Des Moines based philanthropy.

Though not every P.E.O. was ready to immediately embrace the new project, reports from those in attendance at the 1973 convention conveyed a sense of excitement for what many already envisioned as an opportunity for more direct chapter involvement with the women this project would serve. Stories have been told about "passing the hat" among the delegates with the donations collected providing the $3,500 used in funding PCE's first grant awards. This is the story of one of those earliest recipients.

Arlene Mickelson (Mickey) Puddy Struck's early years included a lengthy in-patient stay in Salem's Oregon State Tuberculosis Hospital where her father was also undergoing treatments. Her life took on what she described as a "Cinderella" quality when she later attended Oregon State College. It was there she met her first husband, Hal Puddy, a football and basketball star, and she left her teaching certification incomplete to embark on a new life of marriage and motherhood.

The Puddy family, which now included three children, moved to Bend, Oregon, and in 1966, Mickey was initiated into Chapter DE. Six years later, the family relocated to Port Angeles, Washington, and Mickey became active in P.E.O. in her new hometown. It was there that Hal passed away suddenly at the age of only 49. With three children approaching college age and faced with the knowledge that she needed to step into the role of primary wage earner, both Mickey and her supportive Chapter FM sisters realized her immediate need to finish that degree begun so many years before. The chapter successfully sponsored Mickey for a grant from P.E.O.'s newest project.

Mickey began her teaching career in Washington. Following the family's return to Oregon, she continued teaching for many years, including a period of time with the Peace Corps in Antigua. With each move, she remained active in P.E.O. with transfers to Oregon Chapters EA, Bend; AE, Hood River and EL, Coos Bay. A twist of fate reunited Mickey with a widower who had served as best man during her wedding to Hal so many years before. In retirement, Mickey and James (Jim) Struck became world travelers. Widowed for a second time in 2012, Mickey joined Chapter Eternal in 2014.

The P.E.O. Program for Continuing Education, beginning with a seed planted by those recognizing the need to support women returning to school to complete an education, took root with a $250 grant given to a woman challenged to face a new reality. The huge impact of PCE is realized by the $48,267,883 in grants that have been awarded to 41,793 women since 1973. The

The Puddy family

"Power of 1": One chapter, one woman, one grant. Nearly 42,000 women whose potential has been unleashed through the power of an education—an education made possible, in part, by each one of us through our membership in P.E.O. Yet, the greatest joy comes from considering what lies ahead as we continue to lift up those women with the fewest options and greatest need. Together, P.E.O.s and PCE are: Funding grants today...for a brighter tomorrow! 🌸

Cheri Cramer Johnson, AL, Albuquerque, New Mexico, wrote

"Stolen Miracles and Other Deeds of Dubious Intent." A longtime New Mexican, Cheri's novel combines a look at old south-western traditions with modern New Mexican problems and realities.

The small village of Los Santos in northern New Mexico has one paved road, a crumbling old church and quirky elderly residents whose children have left town for the big cities. Lita—Estrellita Maria Sofia c'de Roybal y Cordova—is the widowed heir to an old Spanish land grant. She had hoped to repair the church roof with grant money, but that would mean selling land her ancestors have owned for 400 years.

How she solves this problem involves drug dealers, goons, the FBI, neighbors and more than a little cleverness on Lita's part. Along the way there are murders, accidents and totally unexpected results from Lita's big decision. The story is told with humor, faith and obvious love of the characters.

Kathy Bird, HE, Evergreen, Colorado, gives

voice to Diann Kissell's remarkable story of hope in "A Turquoise Life: One woman's triumphant journey."

Facing the imminent exposure of an eight-year incestuous relationship with his thirteen-year-old daughter Diann, Luis murders his pregnant wife and three of his ten children. Her father's crimes provide the backdrop for Diann's story. It chronicles a journey from traumatized little girl to strong, whole, independent woman and offers hope to all victims of abuse.

As a young child, Diann leads a double life. On the surface she's a happy, well-behaved, Catholic who honors her father. In her hidden life with Dad she views herself as a weak, bad, mortal sinner. Silence is safety until she can't stand it anymore. When she talks, it costs her mom and three siblings their lives. She believes the murders are her fault; she talked, they died.

Her father's abuse affects every part of her life; her good side fakes being perfect while her bad side, heavy with shame and self-loathing, makes destructive decisions. She's promiscuous and marries an abusive man. The one bright spot in her life are her four children. Determined her children won't suffer because of her past she seeks help and a new way of living.

She embarks on a healing journey of therapy, redefinition of her spiritual beliefs, self-help books, and workshops on anger and forgiveness. After being a featured guest on the Oprah Winfrey Show (September 2, 1987), Diann realizes talking about abuse can help her as well as other victims. By speaking out, she begins to break her father's legacy of shame and give meaning to her life. Diann's memoir is a testament to the resiliency of the human spirit. By telling this color rich story, she honors her healing.

Kathy Bird is a psychotherapist specializing in trauma. She has a private practice in Lakewood, Colorado. She is honored Diann entrusted her to share in her incredible journey by asking her to write "A Turquoise Life." Because of Diann, Kathy has begun a new chapter in her life. She lives with her husband Steve in the foothills west of Denver. Kathy is a third-generation P.E.O.

Ellie Pulikonda, CD, Grants Pass, Oregon, wrote

"Split Second," a novel about family relationships. We all know of families that seem to be golden. Life touches them lightly and success is the norm. But when such a family is faced with a potential tragedy, the seemingly perfect relationships break open to reveal flaws and shortcomings.

Liz Reynolds is the only daughter in such a family. Her attempted suicide forces her parents to examine how they have contributed to her desperate act. Old secrets they have kept from each other and from their daughter threaten every facet of their seemingly perfect lives. Do they have the courage to admit their own shortcomings in order to save Liz?

Ellie received a B.A. from Knox College in literature and M.S. in library science and M.Ed. from the University of Illinois. She is a retired library director and lives in the beautiful mountains of southwest Oregon. She has had a lifelong dream of being an author, finally fulfilled in this novel. She is currently working on a second novel, "Keeping Faith."

Kerrie Hollihan, DP, Cincinnati, Ohio, wrote

"Reporting Under Fire: 16 Daring Women War Correspondents and Photo Journalists." This is Kerrie's fifth nonfiction title for middle-grade students and teens.

Kerrie dedicated her first book on Isaac Newton to long-time friend and P.E.O. sister Gloria Lane, who teaches science and encouraged her to think of herself as one. Gloria's encouragement helped Kerrie write about Newton, though she's not a physicist.

Kerrie takes part in the nationwide "Nonfiction Minute" available free of charge to teachers everywhere. She especially enjoys school visits as well as book talks with adult groups. Kerrie's books have been honored by VOYA, Smithsonian magazine, Bankstreet College of Education, the National Science Teachers Association, the Chicago Public Library and the Junior Library Guild.

"Reporting Under Fire" was named a "Notable Social Studies Trade Book for Young People 2015" by the National Council for the Social Studies in cooperation with the Children's Book Council.

Julie Mendenhall, CY, Grand Junction, Colorado, a K-12 educator, has published a duo of behavior regulating guide books for elementary age children.

"Sunny Shifts His Brain" can be used as a guided tool to be read with children. It provides an entertaining, endearing lesson for young people about their brain and how they can better use it to make good decisions. First, Sunny teaches the importance of our brain and how it works. Then, Sunny teaches two very simple-to-use techniques that children can use to help them better self-regulate their behavior.

"Sunny's Time to Tell, A Book about Tattling, Telling and Personal Safety," was developed in order to give others a guide on how to share critical information to children on the important issue of abuse in our society. This teacher, counselor and parent-led book teaches children about personal safety in a safe and non-threatening way. Both volumes are illustrated by Maja Sommersted.

With over 37 years in the educational field, many of those as school counselor, Julie has worked with children both individually and in groups presenting social skills lessons, as well as with parents and facilitating parenting classes.

Julie has also taught teen mothers and college level child development courses. With her certification in special education, she has taught handicapped students and resource programs, and directed infant care and toddler centers.

Recently retired from school counseling, her desire to bring calm and cohesiveness to the family has now led her to provide Christian family support and behavior counseling. Julie is also involved in respite care and education for families with children who struggle with reactive attachment disorder.

She spends her summers in the Colorado mountains with her husband and enjoys six wonderful grandchildren.

Mary Crandell, JD, Storm Lake, Iowa, wrote "Little Miss Mary Discovers Music Outside Her Window," the first in a series of five books designed to introduce children to music through the natural process of discovery. This first book illuminates music in our natural surroundings, provides hands-on strategies for children to discover and create their own music and offers parents an opportunity to share a creative activity with their children.

The entire series will ignite children's love of the arts while nurturing and strengthening the natural creativity of the young mind. Mary believes that involvement in the fine and performing arts is a vital part of children's intellectual and emotional development. As an arts advocate, she is driven to contribute new ways of helping students explore, experience and invest their minds and hearts into the arts.

Lane Calhoon Dolly, AL, Reston, Virginia, wrote "A Distant Call: The Fateful Choices of Hattie Sheldon," a historical saga based on the real-life of Hattie Sheldon. The book opens in the 1840s as abolitionism, Indian removals and women's rights temper the landscape. Adventurers head west, stirring young Hattie's spirit by their accomplishments. Challenging herself with lofty goals,

The entire series will ignite children's love of the arts while nurturing and strengthening the natural creativity of the young mind. Mary believes that involvement in the fine and performing arts is a vital part of children's intellectual and emotional development. As an arts advocate, she is driven to contribute new ways of helping students explore, experience and invest their minds and hearts into the arts.

Challenging herself with lofty goals, she senses a greater purpose is calling her. But what is it? How can a girl break with tradition in a man's world, and where will it lead?

Hattie finds herself caught between two, struggling influences: her passion to serve the downcast in foreign cultures versus the security of a comfortable life in Utica, New York. How should she use her life for the most good?

Hattie pushes to attend faraway Amherst Academy in Massachusetts, where a protected family secret alarms and awakens her. Utica Female Academy's intellectually rigorous teacher course follows. When she meets a legendary but selfless hero to the marginalized Cherokees out west in Indian Territory, the two forces within Hattie collide. Will her life be meaningful if she makes the safe choice or endangered if she risks everything for her fervent vision?

Grassroots politics led Lane from ranch country in Oklahoma to Washington, D.C., in 1981. She worked in President Reagan's White House, at three national political conventions, as well as nonprofits, private firms and government. Afterwards, a Master of Arts in public policy drew her to history, genealogy and research. Nearly forgotten mentions of a trailblazing ancestor led her to discoveries about the Cherokee Nation before statehood in her native Oklahoma. The compelling life of Hattie Sheldon, her great, great grandmother, parallels America's struggles before the Civil War and beyond. Hattie's spirit, will and purpose live on through Lane's book series.

Dorothy Turner, CG, Pueblo, Colorado, wrote "The Gold Miner's Wife" under the pseudonym Amethyst Creek.

This romance novel, set in the summer of 1873, is about the beautiful and artistically talented Susannah Carlyle who travels from her home in England to the Colorado Rockies where she spends three months painting the lovely landscapes she has heard so much about. A chance meeting with the handsome Thomas Sprague, a wealthy gold mine owner, leads to a marriage proposal. When tragedy unexpectedly strikes, Susannah's future is imperiled. Within her circle of friends there is someone who will ultimately betray her. Will she discover the deception before it is too late?

Dorothy is a retired middle school media specialist and enjoys writing as a hobby.

Janice Lawson, CY, Grand Junction, Colorado, wrote "Poems to See Me Through," a lifetime collection of poetry. From the depths of her Texas roots to standing atop Colorado's most spectacular national park, Janice leads us word by word through a lifetime of poetry, from heartbreak and despair, to celebration and unabashed joy. Twenty-three full-color photos enhance the diverse themes of nature, faith, children and relationships, including not only the well-loved previously published verses, but never-before-shared songs from her heart.

A featured addition to the collection, "Act IV of The Grand Lake Pageant," provides a poetic tribute to Enos Mills and the birth of Colorado's Rocky Mountain National Park, as performed at the park's 75th anniversary celebration in 1990.

A 30-year Grand Junction resident, Janice began writing poetry as a child in Texas. Her love of the art form provided an artistic outlet for celebrating her later loves, parenting, teaching and living in Colorado. Much of the poetry in this publication was written in and around Grand County, Colorado, west gate of Rocky Mountain National Park. A rich lifetime of teaching students to love and improve their own writing, provided a wealth of material for many of the works included in the "Little Hearts" section of the book. Janice is retired from Mesa County Valley School District and has taught writing courses at Colorado Mesa University. This is her third book.

Susan Gunderson, EL, West Lafayette, Indiana, co-authored

"Becoming a Spacewalker: My Journey to the Stars" with astronaut Jerry L. Ross. Told in a friendly first-person narration, designed for ages 7-12, the book tells the story of how Ross followed his dream from 1950s rural northern Indiana to outer space as a record-setting space-walking shuttle astronaut. The 32-page book is illustrated with personal photos and memorabilia.

It was Susan, a literacy education faculty member of Purdue University, who suggested Ross adapt his autobiography into a non-fiction picture book for children.

Karen Appleby, BF, Hendersonville, North Carolina, has a new book titled "Places People Pray ~ a contemplative journal."

Inspired by Karen's childhood experiences and new insights gained from a recent trip to Italy, she finally feels comfortable and blessed in her prayer life. Even though she served in ministry professionally for 30 years until her retirement and considers herself a spiritual person, prayer had seemed a mystery. Karen firmly believes that there are many people who struggle with prayer as well. Through a creative structure of contemplative writing, photography, scripture, spiritual-guiding questions and an opportunity for the reader to journal, Reverend Appleby leads readers through a journey on a variety of themes centered on prayer, including the presence of God, places of rest, nature, forgiveness, community, revelations, communion, blessing and thanksgiving, just to name a few. Readers interested in deepening their prayer life will find this book helpful and hopefully inspire them to practice prayer in new ways and new places. The format lends itself well for small group and book clubs.

Pam "T'Gracie" Reese, EW, Fort Wayne, Indiana,

wrote "Frame Change," which she co-authored with her BIL Joe. In "Frame Change," Nina Bannister discovers a love of amateur painting, little knowing that she will become involved in an international art smuggling ring. It will take her to Graz, Austria, before she can solve the mystery.

"Frame Change" is the fifth in the series of Nina Bannister mysteries published by Cozy Cat Press. The books introduce us to Nina, a retired high school teacher and principal who lives along with her cat, Furl, in a seaside cottage in idyllic Bay Saint Lucy, Mississippi. We follow her and the cast of eccentric characters including Margot Gavin, Tom Broussard, Penelope Royale, Jackson Bennet and Sheriff Moon Rivard. As they go about their daily lives they are interrupted at surprisingly frequent intervals by murders which only Nina proves clever enough to solve.

Pam, whose mother is also a P.E.O., has worked for many years as a speech language pathologist. Recently, she received her Ph.D. in applied language and speech science from the University of Louisiana-Lafayette. Time spent in Lafayette (where Pam joined Chapter Y) motivated her and her husband to use the Cajun and coastal Mississippi cultures as inspiration for their mysteries. She currently works as an assistant professor in communication sciences and disorders at Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne, but she continues to find time to write fiction. 🌸

Learn More About Our Philanthropic Projects
Stop by the Projects' Display Room to meet the trustees of our five financial assistance philanthropies and to learn how your financial and emotional support is assisting thousands of women around the world to meet their educational aspirations.

Visit the Cottey Display Room to immerse yourself in the stories of YOUR college where education is for women, by women and about women. ## How to Support Your Cottey Student

Some ways to support Cottey students are to send cards, care packages, or Chellie Club bucks, used at the on campus coffee/sandwich shop. The Adopt-A-Student and Adopt-A-Suite programs are coordinated by each state. Most states list their Cottey chairmen on their state websites. Contact your state/provincial/district (s/p/d) Cottey chairman or your s/p/d executive board to find out more about these programs in your state!
